Hallo Laserdisc- und DVD-Fans, liebe Filmfreunde!

Geht es Ihnen auch so? Da geht man an nichts Böses denkend zu einem Bäcker seines Vertrauens, um ein Brot zu kaufen. Das nette Mädchel hinter der Ladentheke holt das gewünschte Brot aus dem Regal, legt es auf den Tisch vor sich und fragt mit einem strahlenden Lächeln: "Geschnitten?". Dieses eine Wort trifft einen wie ein Blitz. Für Bruchteile von Sekunden bleibt man vollkommen erstarrt und mit weit aufgerissenen Augen und offenem Mund an der Theke stehen. Seltsame Gedanken schießen einem durch den Kopf: "Genügt es nicht, dass in Deutschland ständig Filme geschnitten werden? Legt jetzt auch noch die Bäckerinnung ihre Hand an?" Die Schrecksekunde vergeht dankbarerweise sehr schnell und man kommt wieder zu sich. Auf die kesse Frage der Verkäuferin kann es nur eine logische Antwort geben: "Nein, natürlich ungeschnitten!" Auch wenn unser kleiner Prolog für dieses Editorial nicht allzu ernst genommen werden sollte, so steckt doch ein wahrer Kern in der Geschichte. Denn als Filmfan in deutschen Landen ist man inzwischen schon sehr sensibilisiert was das Schneiden (sprich: Kürzen) von Filmen angeht. Die Anzahl der Filme, die in den vergangenen Monaten das Licht der (DVD)Welt nur in gekürzter Form erblicken durften, nahm rapide zu. Ob das nur an den härteren Richtlinien der FSK (Freiwillige Selbstkontrolle) liegt oder auch an der dubiosen Vermarktungsstrategie einiger Anbieter, sei einmal dahingestellt. Egal wie die Gründe sind - wir werden auch weiterhin bemüht sein, Sie möglichst mit den längsten verfügbaren Versionen Ihrer Wunschtitel zu versorgen. Aber als "Laser Hotline Certified Customer" wissen Sie das ja schon längst. All jenen, die sich noch nicht via PostIdent-Verfahren bei uns haben registrieren lassen, können wir im Zweifelsfall leider nur die gekürzten Fassungen auf dem Versandwege verkaufen. Sollten Sie noch nicht zu jenen auserwählten Kunden gehören, die wir mit nicht jugendfreier Ware problemlos und legal versorgen dürfen, dann geben Sie uns Bescheid. Wir informieren Sie gerne, wie Sie in den Genuss unseres erweiterten Service kommen können.

Geänderte Telefonzeiten

Wer in den letzten Wochen des Öfteren versucht hat, unsere telefonische Bestellannahme in der Zeit vor 16 Uhr zu erreichen, der musste leider immer wieder mit unserem Anrufbeantworter Vorlieb nehmen. Grund dafür ist eine neue Tätigkeit, die wir vor einiger Zeit bereits in Angriff genommen haben. Denn eine der großen Tageszeitungen in der Region hat uns als Filmkritiker mit ins Boot geholt. Das hat zur Folge, dass wir uns nun jede Woche eine ganze Menge Filme als Pressevorführungen im Kino ansehen dürfen, um diese dann im Anschluss zu rezensieren. Üblicherweise finden solche

Screenings immer Vormittags statt. Oftmals gibt es aber auch gleich zwei Filme in Folge, so dass die Pressetermine oft erst am Nachmittag zu Ende sind. Wir haben uns daher entschlossen, die Zeiten unseres Telefondienstes abzuändern. Damit können Sie uns künftig erst ab 16 Uhr erreichen. Wir bitten um Ihr Verständnis

Alle Jahre wieder

Spätestens seitdem die Nikoläuse wieder in den Regalen der Lebensmittelgeschäfte stehen, ist klar, dass Weihnachten wieder vor der Tür steht. Und wie jedes Jahr nehmen wir dieses Event zum Anlass für unsere traditionellen Betriebsferien. Die machen wir vom 24.12.2007 bis einschließlich 06.01.2008. Während dieser Zeit also bleibt unser Ladengeschäft geschlossen und Sie erreichen telefonisch nur noch den Anrufbeantworter. Wir bitten schon jetzt um Beachtung.

Bleibt uns abschließend nur noch, Ihnen viel Spaß beim Lesen des neuen Newsletters zu wünschen. Bis zum nächsten Mal!

Ihr LASER HOTLINE Team

Kids can tag along with Littlefoot, Cera, Spike, Petrie, and Duckie in this 13th film in the Land Before Time series. In this animated adventure, the young dinosaurs encounter a pair of Beipiaosaurus (also known as Yellow Bellies, for those without degrees in paleontology) named Loofah and Dooah. The Yellow Bellies are lost, and it's up to Littlefoot and his pals to help them find Berry Valley. But just as Littlefoot, Cera, Spike, Petrie, and Duckie are teaching Loofah and Dooah along the way, the friendly fivesome learn some lessons of their own. THE LAND BEFORE TIME XIII: THE WISDOM OF FRIENDS features the voices of award-winning actors Cuba Gooding, Jr. (DADDY DAY CAMP) and Sandra Oh (GREY'S ANATOMY).

In the third installment of the wildly popular SHREK series of computer-animated movies, everyone's favorite hygienically challenged green ogre (voiced by Mike Myers) faces both parental and royal responsibility when his wife, Princess Fiona (Cameron Diaz), finds out that she is pregnant and that her father, King Harold (John Cleese), is on his death bed. The shock of these revelations leads Shrek on a journey with his loyal companions Donkey (Eddie Murphy) and Puss in Boots (Antonio Banderas) to seek out another heir to the throne—an awkward young boy named Artie Pendragon (Justin Timberlake). Waiting in the wings is the scheming Prince Charming (Rupert Everett), who sees the perfect opportunity to make his own bid for power and rallies a villainous crew to attack the castle.

It's the early 1970s and the local anchorman is not only a source of news but a revered local hero. In San Diego, Ron Burgundy (Will Ferrell), a mustachioed bachelor with a taste for scotch, unparalleled passion for the jazz flute, and a near-telepathic connection with his spirited mutt, Baxter, is that man. Rounding out Ron's testosterone-heavy news team are his close friends—cologne-obsessed man-on-the-street Brian Fantana (Paul Rudd), sports reporter Champ Kind (Dave Koechner), and mentally challenged weatherman Brick Tamland (Steve Carell). Their male camaraderie is challenged, though, when producer Ed Harken (Fred Willard), pressured by changing times, brings the first female reporter, ambitious Veronica Corningstone (Christina Applegate), to the team. Ron finds his chauvinistic ideals compromised further when he starts falling in love with her.

Martin Scorsese's THE AVIATOR is a lavish spectacle of a motion picture that harks back to Hollywood's Golden Era in telling the story of Howard Hughes, one of 20th-century America's most pioneering and influential figures. Starring Leonardo DiCaprio as the eccentric billionaire, Scorsese's biopic concentrates on Hughes's life between the 1920s and '40s, when he made striking contributions to both the film and aviation industries. At only 25 years of age, Hughes directed the most expensive film ever made up to that point, HELL'S ANGELS (1930), which Scorsese gleefully recreates here in all its sprawling, audacious glory. At the same time, he became known as an unabashed playboy, bedding the likes of Jean Harlow (singer Gwen Stefani), Ava Gardner (Kate Beckinsale), and Katherine Hepburn (a brilliant Cate Blanchett). In the mid-'30s, he turned his attention to the aviation industry, where he quickly became world-renowned for shattering speed and distance records. He also continued to test the limits of flight technology, building bigger, faster, and stronger aircrafts. All the while, he struggled with an

McTiernan, Renny Harlin, Len Wiseman
DIE HARD: One of the greatest action movies of the late 1980s, DIE HARD ushered in a new standard for the genre. With the dissolution of the Cold War, both the stereotypical Russian threat (represented in movies such as TOP GUN and RED DAWN) and the destructive egoist (as seen in OCTOPUSSY) became less fearful. With DIE HARD, director John McTiernan introduced Hollywood to a new type of villain: the terrorist entrepreneur. Alan Rickman stars as Hans Gruber, a relentless businessman whose lethal tactics achieve his goals. Unlike most '80s film villains who committed globally dangerous acts for liberty, genocide, or megalomania, DIE HARD's Gruber uses guns, explosives, and cunning to storm the Takagi Corporation's Christmas party and heist millions of dollars from the company. In addition, DIE HARD also saw the development of the clumsy or bad luck hero with John McClane (Bruce Willis), a man in the wrong place at the wrong time who chooses to intervene. Action fans would see this misfit hero archetype again in UNDER SIEGE (Steven Seagal) and THE PHANTOM MENACE (Jar Jar Binks). Although DIE HARD contains m

Hairspray (Blu-ray)

Originally written and directed by filmmaker John Waters in 1988, and then put on Broadway, the camp musical HAIRSPRAY could easily have run its course with viewers. But thanks to playful direction, flashy costumes, over-the-top performances, and a positive message of peace, this newest spin proves to be yet another enjoyable incarnation. Set in 1960s Baltimore, the story follows a plump young girl named Tracy Turnblad (played by impressive newcomer Nikki Blonski) on an amazing journey as her dream of dancing on the popular Corny Collins Show becomes a reality. The local television program is a shiny spectacle spear-headed by Corny Collins (James Marsden), a gang of young dancers, and producer Velma Von Tussle (Michelle Pfeiffer), a seductress ice queen whose manipulative ways ensure her daughter Amber (Brittany Snow) gets more than her fair share of screen time as one of the show's stars. When Tracy shows up at an open call, Velma can barely contain her rage, and sets out to rid the show of Tracy and the talented black dancers who make up the show's popular „Negro Day.“ Thus begins a war of talent

Two comedy dynamos unite in this comedy from director Dennis Dugan (PARENTHOOD, HAPPY GILMORE). Brooklyn firefighters Larry Valentine (Kevin James) and Chuck Levine (Adam Sandler) have watched each other's back since they met in the Academy even though they are different as can be. Playboy Chuck can't get enough of the ladies—and they can't get enough of him. Larry, meanwhile, is a widower raising two young children and still grieving the death of his wife. When Larry saves Chuck's life on a call, he comes up with a unique way for his buddy to repay him: having missed the opportunity to name his children beneficiaries, he asks Chuck to act as his domestic partner so that his children will be provided for if tragedy strikes. But these two buddies soon find themselves the subject of an investigation by the city. Enter Alex McDonough (Jessica Biel), their highly attractive attorney who leaves Chuck desperately wishing he wasn't pretending to be gay.

Interview

Steve Buscemi, Sienna Miller - Dir. Steve Buscemi
The plot of actor/director Steve Buscemi's INTERVIEW is devilishly simple: a political journalist (Buscemi) is sent on a clearly beneath-him assignment to meet an attractive B-list soap star celebrity (Sienna Miller). He makes a mess of the interview, but winds up at her Manhattan loft apartment following an unfortunate car accident. Thus begins an intriguing two-character plot arc in which the mismatched couple argue, drink, snort cocaine, argue some more, and ultimately find some common ground as they both loosen up and reveal some secrets.

King of California

Evan Rachel Wood, Michael Douglas - Dir. Mike Cahill

Michael Douglas gives a bravura performance in writer-director Mike Cahill's feature-length debut, KING OF CALIFORNIA. Douglas stars as Charlie, a troubled musician who has just been released from a mental hospital. He returns home to live with his 16-year-old daughter, Miranda (Evan Rachel Wood), who is not exactly thrilled to have him back. Miranda has been forced to quit school and get a job in order to support herself and hold on to her beat-up old car and the family house, which is right in the middle of a new development—but she has refused to sell out. Instead, she works extra shifts at McDonald's and has no social life. But her father—still suffering from mental illness—insists that she join him on a wild adventure in search of supposedly long-buried treasure, and soon the two of them are combing through California, facing danger as Charlie leads them on a crazy quest that takes them through major chain stores and restaurants. Wood (THIRTEEN) is excellent as Miranda, walking that fine line between wanting to believe in her father and feeling he should be hospitalized again—but she never stop

Lady Chatterley

Marina Hands, Jean-Louis Coulloc'h, Hippolyte Girardot, Helene Alexandridis, Michel Vincent - Dir. Pascale Ferran

French director Pascale Ferran brings D.H. Lawrence's second and lesser-known version of LADY CHATTERLEY'S LOVER to the screen. Approaching three hours in length, the film moves at an achingly slow pace as it explores its protagonist's emotional transformation. Set in England in the 1920s, the film begins with our heroine, played by Marina Hands, saying goodbye to her husband, Clifford, who is heading off to war. Left behind on their grand country estate, Constance gets the first taste of the loneliness and isolation she will later become accustomed to when he returns home paralyzed. Suddenly reduced to the role of nurse, the young woman cares for her invalid husband and listlessly putters about the large property, desperately dreaming of escape. She finds this outlet in Parkin (Jean-Louis Coulloc'h), the deceptively brutish gamekeeper down the hill. Skeptical of Constance at first, Parkin begrudgingly produces an extra set of keys to his shed when asked, opening the door to an affair that will awaken something deeply repressed in both parties. Clifford inadvertently encourages his wife by dismi

Mark Lester, Keith Carradine, Tom Guiry - Dir. Daniel Petrie, George Miller, James Hill

LASSIE: Lassie, the famous collie, returns in director Daniel Petrie's updated feature-length family adventure. Baltimore living hasn't agreed with Steve Turner (Jon Tenney). He's been having job trouble for months, and now he's fed up with the filth and crime. So he and his family move to his deceased wife's ancestral family farm in Virginia's lush Shenandoah Valley, population 148. Driving through the countryside, Steve and his new wife, Laura (Helen Slater), stop at the scene of a car accident where they discover a beautiful, newly orphaned collie that they name Lassie. Without hesitation, Lassie (a descendant of the original Lassie of television fame) adopts the Turner family, transforming their son, Matt (Thomas Guiry), from an MTV generation butthead into a sensitive explorer of unspoiled farmland. Matt and his little sister, Jennifer (Brittany Boyd), have trouble adjusting to their new rural hometown but with Lassie's help they soon discover the beautiful secrets of their farm and even begin to repair the tense relationship with their new stepmother. Antonio Banderas, Catherine Zeta-Jones, Rufus Sewell, Nick Chinlund, Lou Diamond Phillips - Dir. Martin Campbell

Catherine Zeta Jones captivated audiences and shot to stardom via her role as Elena in the 1998 take on the Zorro legend, MASK OF ZORRO. This sequel, set in 1850, finds her married to Alejandro, aka Zorro (Antonio Banderas, also returning to reprise his character from MASK OF ZORRO), and demanding he stop all the derring-do and spend time with their smart-as-a-whip 10-year-old son, Joaquin (Adrian Alonso). The boy has some serious acrobatic skills, but is unaware of his father's secret identity. He can only look askance as his parents separate and Dad starts spending too much time with his hard-drinking horse, while Mom lets herself be wooed by the odious Count Armand (Rufus Sewell). It's up to little Zorro Joaquin to get to the bottom of things and get his

Live Free or Die Hard

Bruce Willis, Justin Long, Maggie Q, Timothy Olyphant, Mary Elizabeth Winstead, Jonathan Sadowski - Dir. Len Wiseman

After a twelve-year hiatus, Bruce Willis is back as New York City detective John McClane, who still plays by his own set of rules. Following DIE HARD (1988), DIE HARDER (1990), and DIE HARD WITH A VENGEANCE (1995), the fourth installment in the popular action series stars DEADWOOD's Timothy Olyphant as Thomas Gabriel, an evil mastermind who is determined to bring down the entire infrastructure of the United States on Independence Day, sending the country into anarchy and chaos. Joining him on his mission of destruction is the elegant Mai, played by Maggie Q from MISSION: IMPOSSIBLE III. McClane becomes involved when he gets caught in the crossfire while transporting prisoner Matt Farrell (Justin Long, most well known as the mac in a series of computer commercials), a hacker extraordinaire who is the perfect complement to the old-school McClane, who eschews cell phones, computers, and doing anything the easy way. But when Gabriel kidnaps McClane's daughter, Lucy (Mary Elizabeth Winstead, from the DEATH PROOF section of GRINDHOUSE), it gets personal. Full of the sarcastic humor, exciting action sequences

New York, New York

Liza Minnelli, Robert De Niro, Lionel Stander, Georgie Auld, Mary Kay Place, George Memmoli, Barry Primus, Dick Miller, Diahnne Abbott - Dir. Martin Scorsese
Martin Scorsese's NEW YORK, NEW YORK is a sparkling, nostalgic look at the big-band era of the 1940s, as well as the MGM musicals of the 1940s and 1950s. The story concerns Jimmy Doyle (Robert De Niro), an aspiring saxophonist who meets and is at first rejected by singer Francine Evans (Liza Minnelli). When they continue to bump into each other, a friendship blossoms, followed by romance, and then marriage. All the while, both musicians struggle to succeed at their craft, which begins to put an unbearable strain on their relationship. Eventually, this weight becomes too heavy to handle, leading the couple into a traumatic separation. Scorsese's obvious love for this era of music—as well as cinema—is overflowing throughout the picture, from the set pieces to the costumes to the musical numbers. Most striking is the brutally realistic depiction of a disintegrating marriage, filmed in a series of long, tense takes. De Niro and Minelli jump headlong into their characters, which results in a film that is a challenging viewing experience but emotionally rewarding to the dedicated viewer. As usual, Scorsese

Nosferatu

Max Schreck, Gustave Von Wagenheim, Greta Schroeder, Alexander Granach - Dir. F.W. Murnau
F.W. Murnau's German silent classic is the original—and some say most frightening—DRACULA adaptation, taking Bram Stoker's novel and turning it into a haunting, shadowy dream full of dread. Names had to be changed from the novel when Stoker's wife charged his novel was being filmed without proper permission. Running times vary depending upon versions of the film. Count Orlok, the rodentlike vampire frighteningly portrayed by Max Schreck, is perhaps the most animalistic screen portrayal of a vampire ever filmed. The design was copied by Werner Herzog in his 1979 remake and by Tobe Hooper for his telefilm of Stephen King's SALEM'S LOT that same year. NOSFERATU is an eerie, menacing film that should not be missed.

Ocean's Thirteen

The third installment of Steven Soderbergh's slick, star-studded heist series just might be the best, as Danny Ocean (George Clooney) and company pull off another elaborate caper, this time in the name of revenge. Reuben Tishkoff (Elliott Gould), one of Ocean's original eleven, lies nearly comatose after a myocardial infarction brought on by shock. His dreams of regaining his former glory on the Vegas strip have been dashed by the dastardly Willie Bank (Al Pacino), with whom Reuben foolishly went into business to build the biggest and flashiest casino the world has ever seen. Bank took Reuben for all he was worth, and now, the famously loyal thirteen won't rest until Bank has been brought down. They execute this noble cause through complex, daring, and brilliant machinations that make the most of everyone's talents, including Yen's (Shaobo Qin) acrobatics, Linus's (Matt Damon) acting abilities, and Basher's (Don Cheadle) heavy machinery. Virgil and Turk Malloy (Casey Affleck and Scott Caan) get a few hilarious moments as they brew up a revolution in a Mexican plastics plant, while Rusty (Brad Pitt)

The third installment of Steven Soderbergh's slick, star-studded heist series just might be the best, as Danny Ocean (George Clooney) and company pull off another elaborate caper, this time in the name of revenge. Reuben Tishkoff (Elliott Gould), one of Ocean's original eleven, lies nearly comatose after a myocardial infarction brought on by shock. His dreams of regaining his former glory on the Vegas strip have been dashed by the dastardly Willie Bank (Al Pacino), with whom Reuben foolishly went into business to build the biggest and flashiest casino the world has ever seen. Bank took Reuben for all he was worth, and now, the famously loyal thirteen won't rest until Bank has been brought down. They execute this noble cause through complex, daring, and brilliant machinations that make the most of everyone's talents, including Yen's (Shaobo Qin) acrobatics, Linus's (Matt Damon) acting abilities, and Basher's (Don Cheadle) heavy machinery. Virgil and Turk Malloy (Casey Affleck and Scott Caan) get a few hilarious moments as they brew up a revolution in a Mexican plastics plant, while Rusty (Brad Pitt)

Rent (Blu-ray)

Director Christopher Columbus (MRS. DOUBTFIRE, HARRY POTTER AND THE SORCERER'S STONE) adapts the hit Broadway musical of the same name to the big screen in RENT. A modern spin on the opera LA BOHEME, RENT tells the story of eight friends dealing with life and love in Manhattan's Alphabet City in 1989. Wannabe filmmaker Mark (Anthony Rapp) and singer/songwriter Roger (Adam Pascal) are facing eviction at the hands of their former roommate and current landlord, Benny (Taye Diggs). Benny has married rich, moved out of the neighborhood, and wants to build a state-of-the-art studio where the local tent city stands. Their downstairs neighbor, vivacious Mimi (Rosario Dawson), who strips at a local club to feed her heroin habit, takes a shine to Roger, a self-imposed recluse and former junkie whose last girlfriend died of AIDS. Their friend, Collins (Jesse L. Martin), returns to town and quickly falls for Angel (Wilson Jermaine Heredia), a glamorous, gracious, HIV positive transvestite. Finally, there is Maureen (Idina Menzel), a spitfire and performance artist who is planning a protest against Benny's plans

*To save the day, here comes Underdog, a 1970s Saturday morning cartoon transformed to glorious, semi-CGI animated life; it's a talking animal live-action film—à la BABE—with wisecracks aplenty. Voiced by Jason Lee, Underdog is the joke of the K-9 police force after his weakness for ham disrupts a public ceremony. Dejectedly, he lets himself get abducted for an animal experiment by a mad scientist, Dr. Simon Barsinister (Peter Dinklage). He escapes, doused in experimental chemicals, to become a dog with 80 times his normal strength. Jim Belushi embodies the sad-sack security guard at the laboratory who finds Underdog and takes him home as a playmate for his alienated tweener son (Alex Neuberger). The fact that chaos follows will come as no surprise, but what may be the genial tone the film maintains throughout. UNDERDOG blends its CGI animation and live action with finesse, and with performances that are breezy and in-on-the-same-joke. ## The Wire: The Complete Fourth Season

Dominic West, Lance Reddick, Sonja Sohn
Acclaimed HBO series THE WIRE centers on the drug culture of inner-city Baltimore. The series' storyline unfolds from the viewpoints of both the criminals lorded the streets and the police officers determined to bring them down. In the show's fourth season, which is included here in its entirety, four new characters—Dukie Weems, Randy Wagstaff, Michael Lee, and Namond Brice—are introduced to the gritty television drama. The plot in the fourth season mostly focuses on the eighth graders who try to survive the drug-laden streets of West Baltimore as the city's mayoral race enters its final stages. Clarence Royce, the black candidate, has a colossal lead over white councilman Tommy Carcetti, while Marlo Stanfield continues his ascension as Baltimore's new drug baron.

Future Of Food

Want to know what you're really eating and how it ends up on the dinner table? Filmmaker Deborah Koons Garcia did, so she set about making this documentary, which uncovers some startling truths about the ways in which the food industry has been revolutionized. Travelling across the continent to the U.S., Canada, and Mexico, Koons speaks to farmers who have had new technology aggressively forced on them by large corporations, while also seeking out alternative ways in which to harvest crops and eat unprocessed foods.
