Hallo Laserdisc- und DVD-Fans, liebe Filmfreunde!

Große Ereignisse werfen wieder einmal ihre Schatten voraus. Denn einmal mehr dreht die Schauburg in Karlsruhe das Rad der Zeit zurück und lädt vom 7.-8. Juni 2008 zum ersten "Widescreen Festival" ein. Anders als das bereits fest etablierte "Todd-AO 70mm Filmfestival" im Oktober wird das "Widescreen Festival" von nun an jährlich anderen Breitfilmformaten als Todd-AO gewidmet sein. Das Motto in diesem Jahr lautet "In CinemaScope, Technicolor und stereophonischem Magnetton". Zur Aufführung kommen nicht weniger als neun 35mm CinemaScope Technicolor Kopien aus den Anfangsjahren der CinemaScope-Ära. Alle Kopien sind in den Farben komplett erhalten, besitzen 4-Kanal Stereo Magnetton und sind deutsch synchronisiert. Es bietet sich hier die einzigartige Möglichkeit, Filme wie DAS GEWAND, DEMETRIUS UND DIE GLADIATOREN oder DER REBELL

IHRER MAJESTÄT so zu sehen, wie sie von ihren Schöpfern konzipiert wurden. Selbstverständlich werden wir uns dieses Vergnügen nicht entgehen lassen. Wer weitere Details zum Festival wissen möchte, der darf sich gerne an uns wenden oder die Schauburg in Karlsruhe direkt kontaktieren. Vielleicht bis bald in Karlsruhe?

Superheld und Junkie

Wieder einmal ein volles Programm in dieser Woche...

IRON MAN (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

Robert Downey Jr. schlüpft in die Rolle des Helden in einer Comic-Verfilmung nach Stan Lee. Und die läuft leider nur nach Schema ab. Immerhin sind die Visual Effects allererste Sahne, speziell dann, wenn unser Held sich einen Schutzanzug „designed“. Echtes Popcorn-Kino mit guter Bildqualität, das am 1. Mai an den Start geht.

THINGS WE LOST IN THE FIRE

(1:2.35, DD 5.1)

Der bessere Film am heutigen Tag! In gewohnt gefühlvoller Manier bringt Susanne Bier (NACH DER HOCHZEIT) ihre Story an den Zuschauer. Benicio del Toro als Junkie und Halle Berry als junge Witwe und Mutter zweier Kids brillieren in ihren Rollen. Trotz CinemaScope setzt Frau Bier wieder auf extreme Close Ups und bleibt so bei ihren Protagonisten ganz nah dran. Intimität vom Feinsten. Warnung: anstelle von Popcorn lieber ein Taschentuch mit ins Kino nehmen. Ab 29. Mai überall.

Hochzeitsromanzen

Am heutigen Dienstag standen Hochzeitsromanzen ziemlich hoch im Kurs... Man merkt es deutlich: der Wonnemonat Mai steht vor der Tür!

MADE OF HONOR (VERLIEBT IN DIE BRAUT) (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

Patrick Dempsey in der Rolle der Brautjungfer bei der Hochzeit seiner besten Freundin - bis er endlich merkt, dass eigentlich er verrückt nach ihr ist. Eine Hollywoodromanze nach bekanntem Strickmuster, aber trotzdem durchaus gefällig. Grandios: das Setting in den schottischen Highlands! Passend zum Film sollte dann echter schottischer Malt Whiskey serviert werden. Kinostart: 15. Mai.

WHAT HAPPENS IN VEGAS... (LOVE VEGAS) (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

Der weniger erträgliche Film am heutigen Tag. Kein Wunder: Cameron Diaz dreht wieder vollkommen durch! Typisch amerikanisch auch dieser Film, der allerdings etwas seichter daherkommt als MADE OF HONOR und auch kaum Platz lässt für wahre Gefühle. Allenfalls als Pausenfüller zu empfehlen. Kinostart: 8. Mai.

Ein tolles Stück Kino

Auch der Donnerstag hatte ein Double Feature im Gepäck.

DER WEISSE MIT DEM SCHWARZBROT (1:1.85, DVD, Stereo)

Ein deutscher Dokumentarfilm über den Schauspieler und EX-RAF-Mann Christof Wackernagel, der jetzt im afrikanischen Mali lebt. Ein interessantes Porträt über einen Naivling, der immer gerne etwas bewirken möchte. Muss man nicht unbedingt gesehen haben - und schon gar nicht von DVD. Ab 12. Juni im Kino.

THE BANK JOB (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

Seid Ihr auf der Suche nach einem richtig guten Krimi? Hier ist er! Ein toller Film über einen Bankraub im London der 70er-Jahre. Und das auch noch nach einer wahren Begebenheit. Spannend inszeniert und mit einer überzeugenden Besetzung. Würde eigentlich optimal ins Fantasy Filmfest passen, wird aber schon zuvor ins Kino gebracht. Start ist der 12. Juni.

Woody wieder ernst

Zum Wochenausklang gab es eine Einladung von Woody.... ;-)

CASSANDRA'S DREAM (CASSANDRAS TRAUM) (1:1.85, DD 5.1)

Einmal mehr interessierte sich Woody Allen für einen ernsten Krimi. Darin spielen Ewan McGregor und Colin Farrell zwei Brüder, die im Auftrag ihres reichen Onkels dessen Widersacher beseitigen sollen, um so selbst wieder ihrer finanziellen Not zu entrinnen. Ein hervorragend gespielter,ammerspielartiger Kriminalfilm, dessen Thema Schuld ist. Vornehmlich an etwas heruntergekommenen Locations in London gedreht (Kamera: Vilmos Zsigmond) und - für Woody untypisch - unter Verwendung eines Scores (Musik: Philip Glass) erreicht der Film leider nur bedingt die Qualität von MATCH POINT. Aber entscheidet selbst ab 5. Juni - im Kino.

Schönes Wochenende!

Zombieesker Burt

Zum Wochenbeginn leichte Kost...

DEAL (ALL IN - ALLES ODER NICHTS) (1:1.85, DD 5.1)

Wer Pokern langweilig findet, der wird mit diesem Film die Bestätigung dafür bekommen. Einfalllos inszeniert und mit einem verdammt an LUCKY YOU erinnernden Plot, versucht der Film vergebens, seine Zuschauer 83 Minuten lang zu unterhalten. Richtig amüsant ist Burt Reynolds in der Rolle als alter Zocker. Nicht sein Alter ist es, das ihn nur langsame Bewegungen machen lässt, sondern vermutlich mehr das Toupet und sein geliftetes Gesicht (echtes Pokerface!), die keine schnellen Bewegungen überleben würden. Ab 12. Juni könnt Ihr es Euch im Kino anschauen.

Musik und Action

Es ist Dienstag - also Grund genug, dass die Filme interessanter werden...

FALCO - VERDAMMT, WIR LEBEN NOCH (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

Sex, Drugs und österreichische Rap-Musik. Das kurze, wilde Leben des Hans Hölzel alias Falco zusammengefasst in einem Spielfilm. In der Hauptrolle sehr gut besetzt (und auch gesungen). Manchmal etwas zu lange geraten. Eine für Falcoianer sicherlich sehenswerte Studie über die Schattenseiten von Ruhm. Ab 5. Juni bundesweit im Kino.

SPEED RACER (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

Die neueste Bilderflut der Wachowski-Brüder. Visuell brilliant. Solch knallige Farben habe ich zuletzt in einem Bollywood-Film gesehen! Die Story lässt den Betrachter allerdings ziemlich kalt. Aber mal ganz ehrlich: was soll man auch anderes vom Live-Action-Remake einer japanischen Animationsserie erwarten? In einer Digitalvorführung dürfte SPEED RACER ein optisches Knock-Out sein. Ab 8. Mai in den Kinos.

Wolfram Hannemanns Film-Blog

Mittwoch, 30. April 2008

Atemberaubend

Das richtige Highlight der Filmwoche gab es heute...

JULIA (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

Die Geschichte ähnelt ein bisschen der von GLORIA, doch Hauptdarstellerin Tilda Swinton sorgt durch ihre Tour-de-Force-Performance dafür, dass man stets mit ihr mitfiebert. In ihrer Rolle als Alkoholikerin, die einen kleinen Jungen kidnappt und sich dadurch in schier unlösbare Probleme verstrickt, überzeugt sie von der ersten bis zur letzten Sekunde. Unglaublich spannend: die geplante Lösegeldübergabe in einer Busstation. Da präsentieren sich auch die Tontechniker von ihrer besten Seite und demonstrieren, was man unter einem tollen Sounddesign versteht. Ein Geheimtipp. Ab 19. Juni 2008 in den Kinos.

Morgen ist kinofrei!

Rückkehr der Screwball Comedy

Zum Wochenausklang gab es Leichtverdauliches...

LEATHERHEADS (EIN VERLOCKENDES SPIEL) (1:1.85, DD 5.1)

Hauptdarsteller und Regisseur George Clooney versucht sich an einer Komödie, die sichtlich an die Screwball-Komödien der 30er- und 40er-Jahre anknüpfen möchte. Mit seiner Gegenspielerin Renee Zellweger liefert er sich auch ein paar hübsche Rededuellen und versteht sich bestens auf das Zeitkolorit der 20er-Jahre mitsamt Sepiatönung, kann aber trotzdem einfach nicht richtig überzeugen. Vermutlich liegt's am Drehbuch. Auf jeden Fall erwähnenswert bleiben die Kameraarbeit von Newton Thomas Sigel und die Filmmusik von Randy Newman (auch wenn es nicht seine beste Arbeit ist). Leider gab es bei der heutigen Vorführung ein technisches Problem, das zumindest meinen Höreindruck geschmälert hat. Aber wen interessiert das schon... ;-). Den Film gibt's ab 6. Juni 2008 in den Kinos (FSK-Freigabe: ab 6 Jahren).

Camilla Belle, Cliff Curtis, Steven Strait, Tim Barlow - Dir. Roland Emmerich

Director Roland Emmerich weaves myth and legend together in this epic love story. As the Ice Age is ending, the Yagahl people are struggling to survive. When Evolet (Camilla Belle), a young, blue-eyed girl is found and brought back to the tribe, their esteemed elder, Old Mother (Mona Hammond), realizes that the child is fulfilling a prophecy and will be instrumental in saving the Yagahl. D'Leh (Steven Strait) swore his heart to Evolet when she first came to the tribe, and after many years claims her as his own. But no sooner are the young lovers together, than they are torn apart by mysterious men arriving on horseback who kidnap many of the Yagahl, including Evolet, for slave trade. Determined to save his love and their people, D'Leh embarks on a rescue mission with his father figure Tic'Tic (Cliff Curtis). Along the way, they encounter different lands, new people, and strange creatures including giant birds akin to a killer ostrich.

Camilla Belle, Cliff Curtis, Steven Strait, Tim Barlow - Dir. Roland Emmerich

Director Roland Emmerich weaves myth and legend together in this epic love story. As the Ice Age is ending, the Yagahl people are struggling to survive. When Evolet (Camilla Belle), a young, blue-eyed girl is found and brought back to the tribe, their esteemed elder, Old Mother (Mona Hammond), realizes that the child is fulfilling a prophecy and will be instrumental in saving the Yagahl. D'Leh (Steven Strait) swore his heart to Evolet when she first came to the tribe, and after many years claims her as his own. But no sooner are the young lovers together, than they are torn apart by mysterious men arriving on horseback who kidnap many of the Yagahl, including Evolet, for slave trade. Determined to save his love and their people, D'Leh embarks on a rescue mission with his father figure Tic'Tic (Cliff Curtis). Along the way, they encounter different lands, new people, and strange creatures including giant birds akin to a killer ostrich.

Alpha Dog

Justin Timberlake, Sharon Stone, Emile Hirsch, Anton Yelchin, Shawn Hatosy, Ben Foster, Dominique Swain, Harry Dean Stanton, Bruce Willis, Lukas Haas - Dir. Nick Cassavetes

A difficult gestation period led to Nick Cassavetes's ALPHA DOG being delayed and facing possible legal battles after the real-life subject of the film (alleged kidnapper and murderer Jesse James Hollywood) objected to his portrayal. The cinematic version of Hollywood is named Johnny Truelove and played by Emile Hirsch (LORDS OF DOGTOWN). Truelove is a wild 18-year-old who deals drugs for a living and hangs out with his posse, who revolve around a core of Frankie (Justin Timberlake), Elvis (Shawn Hatosy), and Tiko (Fernando Vargas). When a client of Truelove's, Jake Mazursky (Ben Foster), is unable to pay off his crystal-meth debt, the group kidnaps his 15-year-old stepbrother, Zack (Anton Yelchin), who becomes a Patty Hearst-like accomplice in his own abduction. Indeed, Zack positively revels in his new position, and lives it up with the boys at every opportunity he gets. But Cassavetes's film really revs into gear as the cops close in on Truelove's band of outsiders, and they face a tough decision about what to do with Zack.

Be Kind Rewind

Jack Black, Chandler Parker, Irv Gooch, Arjay Smith, Marcus Franklin, Mos Def, Danny Glover, Mia Farrow, Melonie Diaz - Dir. Michel Gondry

Music-video-director-auteur Michel Gondry continues to charm with his low-tech offering, BE KIND REWIND. Set in dreary Passaic, New Jersey, the comedy centers on two of the town's residents: trouble-making Jerry (Jack Black) and well-meaning Mike (Mos Def). Mike works in a video store in an age where the VHS is long dead, but the store's owner, Mr. Fletcher (Danny Glover), doesn't seem to be in any hurry to change. When Mr. Fletcher leaves town for a trip, he entrusts his store to Mike with one piece of advice: don't let Jerry in the store. But after some mischief, Jerry returns to the store in a strange state. Not only is he weirder than usual, but he's also magnetized, which causes the entire store's stock to be erased. In order to keep the struggling business afloat, Mike and Jerry begin remaking the films in the store one by one. Their hilariously low-budget versions of films such as GHOSTBUSTERS and RUSH HOUR 2 soon begin to

Eric is dismayed to be put on such low-priority detail, accustomed as he is to investigating high-profile terrorism suspects. His reluctance is multiplied as he gets to know the subject of his inquiry; Hanssen is at first harsh towards his young secretary, but as he opens up, Eric gets to know and respect him as a family man of strong Catholic faith. Soon, however, Hanssen is infiltrating Eric's personal life and causing problems between him and his wife, Juliana (Caroline Dhavernas, HOLLYWOODLAND), and just when Eric is about to give up the case, he discovers that it is much bigger than he ever imagined. Children of Men

Clive Owen, Julianne Moore, Michael Caine, Chjwetel Ejiofor, Peter Mullan, Charlie Hunnam, Pam Ferris, Danny Huston, Jacek Koman - Dir. Alfonso Cuarón
CHILDREN OF MEN is not a popcorn movie. With its almost relentlessly bleak perspective on the future, Alfonso Cuarón's film doesn't make for pleasant viewing. But it's an exhilarating experience because the picture is an amazing dystopian drama that lacks all the typical trappings of the genre. Set uncomfortably close to the present, it paints a frighteningly realistic picture of the future. In 2027, every woman on earth is infertile. With the loss of the ability to have children, the world has also lost hope. Clive Owen (CLOSER) plays Theo, an Englishman attempting to make a life in a hellish world. His estranged wife (Julianne Moore) convinces him to help transport a young woman to safety. When Theo learns that the woman is pregnant, their journey takes on a significance—and a danger—he never imagined.

In the tradition of such improv-driven comedies as BEST IN SHOW and A MIGHTY WIND, director Zak Penn (INCIDENT AT LOCH NESS) casts an affectionate eye on the world of professional poker in his highly entertaining mockumentary, THE GRAND. Penn assembles an impressive ensemble of comedic performers and poker personalities to tell the story of six competitors in a $10 million winner-take-all Las Vegas poker tournament. Leading the way is One-Eyed Jack Faro (Woody Harrelson), a charming rogue whose addiction to drugs and quickie marriages has put his grandfather's casino on the brink of bankruptcy. Also vying for the prize are Lainie and Larry Schwartzman (Cheryl Hines, David Cross), two hyper-competitive siblings still angling for their father's favor; old school Vegas tough guy „Deuce“ Fairbanks (Dennis Farina); socially inept math whiz Harold Melvin (Chris Parnell); and impossibly „Aw, shucks!“ amateur Andy Andrews (Richard Kind). As the six fight their way to the final showdown, they cross bets and bluffs with a colorful cast of skills and sharks ranging from real-life poker legends such as Doyle Brunso

In the 1920s, Thomas Edison speculated that a device would be created which would allow humans to conduct conversations with the dead. In the 1970s, Sarah Estep picked up some mysterious voices on her husband's reel-to-reel tape recorder, and set up the American Association of Electronic Voice Phenomena (EVP) to help track the phenomenon. In 2005, following a welter of evidence gathered by Estep and others, EVP forms the backbone for director Geoffrey Sax's shocking feature film WHITE NOISE.

Netjets Showdown: Pete Sampras Vs. Roger Federer

Two unstoppable forces collided in this 2008 match-up at New York's Madison Square Garden. While a sold-out crowd watched in awe, two of tennis's biggest champs—Pete Sampras and Roger Federer—battled it out for victory. Though a decade may have separated them in age, the older Sampras still showed he could deliver the goods on the court. The tense game may have ultimately ended in Sampras's defeat, but it nevertheless showed he wasn't willing to give ground without a fight. This historic game is presented here in every second of its glory.

Nova - Mysterious Life of Caves

Armed with new evidence, the two geologists go on a quest into the deepest underground caverns to support an idea that microbes and toxic hydrogen sulfide gas are the new culprits of cave formation.
