Nr. 230 - Juni 2008

editorial

Hallo Laserdisc- und DVD-Fans, liebe Filmfreunde!

Nur noch ein paar Tage und dann beginnt das erste große CinemaScope-Festival in der Karlsruher Schauburg. Und es gibt jetzt schon eine Programmänderung zu melden. Denn die schwierige rechtliche Lage lässt es momentan leider nicht zu, dass der Tony Curtis Film DER EISERNE RITTER VON FALWORTH zur Aufführung kommen wird. Aber es gibt stattdessen einen adäquaten Ersatz: REBELL IHRER MAJESTÄT. Wer Bette Davis mag und auch Franz Waxmans Filmmusik schätzt, der wird bei diesem Historienfilm ganz bestimmt auf seine Kosten kommen. Wir haben das korrigierte "Widescreen Weekend"-Programm auf den nachfolgenden Seiten nochmals für Sie zusammengestellt.

Und wer es nicht zum Festival schafft oder sowieso Filme lieber im Heimkino genießen möchte, dem wird der vorliegende Newsletter sicher wieder viele Anregungen für die Sammlungserweiterung geben. Wobei Action-Freunden hier speziell der Film 8 BLICKWINKEL (VANTAGE POINT) empfohlen sei. Aber bitte beim Anschauen das Atmen nicht vergessen! Aber natürlich kommen auch Freunde anspruchsvoller

Kost nicht zu kurz. DIE BAND VON NEBENAN empfiehlt sich hier. Die irrwitzige Geschichte eines ägyptischen Polizeiorchesters, das zu einem Konzert nach Israel eingeladen wird und dann im falschen Ort landet, hat ebenso viele amüsante wie traurige Momente und besticht speziell in der Originalfassung durch ein ausgezeichnetes Schauspielensemble. Und wer es gerne horrormäßig spannend liebt, der sollte sich die Stephen King Verfilmung DER NEBEL von Frank Darabont gönnen. Hier ist Gänsehaut garantiert! Denn in keinem anderen Film der jüngeren Zeit wird das spürbare Grauen so auf den Punkt gebracht wie in dieser Endzeitvision. Oder wie wäre es mal mit einem netten deutschen Film für Zwischendurch? KEINOHRHASEN ist mittlerweile zum erfolgreichsten deutschen Film in den Charts avanciert. Da lohnt sich doch vielleicht mal ein neugieriger Blick in die DVD um zu sehen, ob er denn wirklich so gut ist wie es die Besucherzahlen suggerieren. Immerhin hat KEINOHRHASEN für reichlich Wirbel um seine FSK-Freigabe gesorgt. Denn viele Eltern hatten sich lautstark empört ob der Freigabe ab 6 Jahren. Und die Lautstärke kam bei den FSKlern an. Die änderten die Freigabe binnen Kürze auf "Freigegeben ab 12 Jahren". In der Begründung heisst es: "Der Appellationsausschuss hat nach ausführlicher Diskussion über mögliche Wirkungen des Films diese Entscheidung gefällt, da anderenfalls die Erziehung von sechs- oder siebenjährigen Kindern beeinträchtigt werden könnte". Begründet wird diese Entscheidung damit, dass die Sprache des Films häufig mit „sexualisierten, derben Ausdrucksweisen“ durchsetzt ist. Dabei sei nicht auszuschließen, „dass die immer wieder verwandten derben, sexualisierten Worte und Begriffe Kinder irritieren, verstören oder in ihnen falsche Vorstellungen wecken, auch weil sie gerade diese Begriffe zumindest teilweise nur in Ansätzen und gelegentlich überhaupt nicht verstehen dürften“, heißt es in der FSK-Mitteilung abschließend.

Und was lernen wir daraus? Man muss bei einem Film nicht immer gleich die Schere anlegen. Denn wenn man einfach die "richtige" Altersfreigabe von Anfang an vergibt, bedarf es keiner Kürzungen. Aber bei Horrorfilmen wird hier eben ein ganz anderes Maß angelegt. Und das sehr zum Leidwesen eingefleischter Fans.

DRAUSSEN WARTET DER TOD

Originaltitel: The Last Frontier / Savage Wilderness / USA 1955

Aufgenommen in 35mm CinemaScope® (1:2.35)

Präsentiert in 35mm CinemaScope® / 4-Kanal-Stereo-Magnetton / Deutsche Fassung / 97 Minuten

Technicolor®-Druckkopie

Deutsche Erstaufführung: 09.3.1956

FSK: freigegeben ab 12 Jahren

Produktion: William Fadiman

Regie: Anthony Mann

Buch: Philip Yordan, Russell Hughes

Buchvorlage: Richard Emery Roberts (Roman „The Gilded Rooster“)

Kamera: William C. Mellor

Musik: Leigh Harline

Schnitt: Al Clark

Darsteller: Victor Mature (Jed), Guy Madison (Capt. Riordan), Robert Preston (Col. Frank Marston), James Whitmore (Gus), Anne Bancroft (Corinna Marston), Russell Collins (Capt. Clark), Peter Whitney (Sgt. Maj. Decker), Pat Hogan (Mungo), Manuel Donde (Red Cloud), Guy Williams (Lt. Benton), Mickey Kuhn (Luke), William Calles (Spotted Elk)

Drei Trapper lernen die „Zivilisation“ von der schlimmsten Seite kennen, als sie sich von der Armee als Scouts im Kampf gegen die Indianer anwerben lassen. In der Mitte des 19. Jahrhunderts angesiedelter Western, funktional, aber großzügig inszeniert und gut gespielt. Im Mikrokosmos eines bedrohten Forts mit seinem unfähigen, siegesdurstigen Kommandanten behandelt der Film erstaunlich differenziert Themen wie Macht, Kolonisierung und den Konflikt zwischen Gefühlen und Normen, wobei er - trotz seines aufgesetzten Alibi-Endes - engagiert Partei nimmt für Individualismus und Toleranz. Produktion: Charles Brackett

Regie: Henry Koster

Buch: Harry Brown, Mindred Lord

Kamera: Charles G. Clarke

Musik: Franz Waxman

Schnitt: Robert Simpson

Darsteller: Bette Davis (Königin Elizabeth), Richard Todd (Walter Raleigh), Joan Collins (Beth Throgmorton), Jay Robinson (Lord Chadwick), Herbert Marshall (Earl of Leicester), Robert Douglas (Sir Hatton)

1581 trifft die junge englische Königin Elisabeth I. auf den Seefahrer Walter Raleigh, ist von ihm angetan und ermöglicht seine kühnen seefahrerischen Pläne. Raleigh liebt allerdings eine andere. Historienfilm im Hollywood-Stil, als Geschichtsbild unbedeutend, jedoch wegen der brillanten Darstellungskunst von Bette Davis sehenswert. (Quelle: Film-Dienst)

DAS GEWAND

Originaltitel: The Robe / USA 1953
 Aufgenommen in 35mm CinemaScope® (1:2.55)
 Präsentiert in 35mm CinemaScope® / 4-Kanal-Stereo-Magnetton / Deutsche Fassung / 133 Minuten
 Technicolor®-Druckkopie
 Deutsche Erstaufführung: 04.12.1953
 FSK: freigegeben ab 12 Jahren
 Produktion: Frank Ross
 Regie: Henry Koster
 Buch: Philip Dunne
 Buchvorlage: Lloyd C. Douglas (Roman)
 Kamera: Leon Shamroy
 Musik: Alfred Newman
 Schnitt: Barbara McLean
 Darsteller: Richard Burton (Marcellus Gallio), Jean Simmons (Diana), Victor Mature (Demetrius), Michael Rennie (Petrus), Jay Robinson (Caligula), Dean Jagger (Justus)

Legendenhafte Handlung um das Schicksal des Gewandes Jesu nach der Kreuzigung. Ein pittoresker Kolossal film, der die erste CinemaScope®-Produktion der Filmgeschichte darstellt. Mit imposanten Massenszenen und Spezialeffekten naiv und publikumswirksam inszeniert, kommt der geistige Gehalt des Stoffes zu kurz; allerdings will die Monumentalunterhaltung auch keine spirituellen Aspekte vertiefend thematisieren. (Fortsetzung: „Die Gladiatoren“, USA 1954) (Quelle: Film-Dienst)

Ausgezeichnet mit 2 Oscars:

Beste Ausstattung: Farbe: George W. Davis, Paul S. Fox, Walter M. Scott, Lyle R. Wheeler
 Beste Kostüme: Farbe: Charles LeMaire, Emile Santiago

Musik: Cole Porter, Nelson Riddle

Schnitt: Robert Simpson

Darsteller: Shirley MacLaine (Simone Pistache), Frank Sinatra (François Dournais), Maurice Chevalier (Paul Barriere), Louis Jourdan (Philippe Forrestier), Juliet Prowse (Claudine)

Revuefilm nach Melodien von Cole Porter: Im Paris der Jahrhundertwende streiten zwei Juristen um die Gunst einer Tänzerin; der Leichtfertiger siegt. Das überlange Spiel wird durch teure Ausstattung und prominente Darsteller ansehnlich, ohne den rechten Schwung zu bekommen. Künstlerische Einfälle beweist vor allem der Choreograf Hermes Pan. Ein gelähmter Viehbaron strebt unter dem Einfluß von Frau und Bruder - die ihn betrügen - nach dem Besitz des ganzen Tals. Ein kleiner Landbesitzer organisiert den Widerstand. Gut gespielter und vorzüglich fotografiertes Western der Nachbürgerkriegsära, inszeniert von Rudolph Maté, einem berühmten Kamera-Künstler der 20er Jahre (u.a. „La Passion de Jeanne d'Arc“, 1928). Technicolor®-Druckkopie

Deutsche Erstaufführung: 21.12.1954

FSK: freigegeben ab 12 Jahren

Produktion: Sidney Luft

Regie: George Cukor

Buch: Moss Hart

Kamera: Sam Leavitt

Musik: Harold Arlen, Ray Heindorf (Ltg.)

Schnitt: Folmar Blangsted

Darsteller: Judy Garland (Esther/Vicki), James Mason (Norman Maine), Jack Carson (Matt Libby), Charles Bickford (Oliver Niles), Tommy Noonan (Danny McGuire), Lucy Marlow (Lola Lavery), Amanda Blake (Susan Ettinger)

Melodram um den Aufstieg eines Revuegirls zur gefeierten Sängerin. Die Kehrseite: Ihr geliebter Mann macht analog den Abstieg vom Filmstar zum Nobody, zum Alkoholiker und schließlich zum Selbstmörder durch. Seit seiner Uraufführung in einer verstümmelten, von Cukor nicht autorisierten Fassung in den Kinos (120 Min.; dt. Verleihtitel: „Ein neuer Stern am Himmel“), wurde der Film 1983 in den USA von Ron Haver mit verlorengelaubtem Material auf die originale Länge von 177 Minuten vervollständigt. Das Original legt Zeugnis ab von der künstlerischen Meisterleistung Cukors, von der gelungenen Integration scheinbar unvereinbarer Genres, vom Wagemut im Umgang mit dem damals noch ungewohnten CinemaScope®-Format, von einer atemberaubenden Schnitttechnik und dem Gespür für filmischen Rhythmus.

Der Stoff wurde auch von William A. Wellman (1937) und Frank Pierson (1976) verfilmt. (Quelle: Film-Dienst)

Darsteller: John Belushi (Joliet Jake), Dan Aykroyd (Elwood), Kathleen Freeman (Schwester Mary), Cab Calloway (Curtis), James Brown (Cleophus James), Carrie Fisher (Attentäterin), Ray Charles (Ray), John Candy (Burton Mercer)

Zwei Ganoven und Musiker versuchen, ihre alte „Blues Brothers Band“ wieder aufleben zu lassen, um mit ihren Konzerteinnahmen die Steuerschuld für das Waisenhaus zu bezahlen, in dem sie aufgewachsen sind. Ungewöhnliche Mischung aus Musik- und Actionfilm, die durch überdrehte Ausgelassenheit, eine unbändige Zerstörungswut, zündende Musiknummern und urige Hauptdarsteller gekennzeichnet ist. In Europa zum „Kultfilm“ avanciert, blieb der Film in den USA eher ein mäßiger Erfolg (Quelle: Film-Dienst)

Catering während des Festivals

Zusätzlich zu den bereits im Preis des Festivalpasses (EUR 70,-) enthaltenen kulinarischen Leckereien (Widescreen-Welcome, Widescreen-Imbiss, Get Together, Widescreen-Frühstück, Widescreen-Intermission) wird die Schauburg eine kleine Küche ständig offenhalten, in der Snacks und kleine leckere Gerichte zum Kauf angeboten werden.

Neues aus Tussenhausen

Auch auf die Gefahr hin, dass ich mich jetzt auf sehr dünnem Eis bewege, tue ich meiner Meinung über nachfolgendes Hollywoodfilmchen kund...

SEX AND THE CITY (SEX AND THE CITY) (1:1.85, DD 5.1)

Zugegeben: ich habe die TV-Serie nie gesehen. Schließlich gibt es ja wichtigere Dinge im Leben - und auch im Fernsehen. Trotzdem habe ich mich jetzt in die Kinofassung dieses anrühigen Fernsehstoffes gewagt. Und nach Sichtung des über zwei Stunden dahinfunkelnden Epos für High Heels Fetischisten werde ich mir die TV-Serie ganz sicher nie anschauen. Die Frauenfiguren (um nicht das Wort „Frauenzimmer“ oder gar „Tussen“ zu verwenden) in dieser Hollywood-Ausgeburt sind so künstlich, dass es fast schon wieder gruselig ist und man richtig froh ist, kein Geld zu haben. Zumindest nicht in dem Maße wie die überdrehten Ami-Mädels. Ohne sexistisch werden zu wollen: aber die Männerfiguren wirken hier deutlich entkrampfter! Ein Film wie geschaffen für die große Fangemeinde von SATC... Allen anderen rate ich: Hände weg und schaut Euch einen besseren Film an! Ab 29. Mai auf deutschen Leinwänden.

Der Loser und das Biest

Noch ein letzter kleiner Film in dieser Woche...

INTERVIEW (INTERVIEW) (1:1.85, DD 5.1)

Steve Buscemis Remake eines Theo van Gogh Films. Das Zwei-Personen-Psycho-Duell ist mit Buscemi selbst sowie der hübschen Sienna Miller optimal besetzt und macht richtig Spaß. Wo anderen Zwei-Personer immer wieder der sehr theatralische Charakter einen Strich durch die Rechnung macht, gelingt es den Filmemachern hier, den Zuschauer stets in ihren Bann zu ziehen. Kinostart ist der 29. Mai 2008 (FSK: ab 12 Jahren)

Dreck und Elend

Die Woche ging los mit einem typisch deutschen Film...oder nicht?

DER MOND UND ANDERE LIEBHABER (1:1.85, DD 5.1)

Katharina Thalbach in der Rolle einer sozial schwachen Frau, die sich trotz aller widrigen Umstände immer wieder hochrappelt. Teilweise etwas zu dick aufgetragen, erinnert das Werk von Bernd Böhlich zu sehr an ein TV Event Drama als an einen großen Kinofilm. Dank der guten Leistung der Hauptdarstellerin aber dennoch sehenswert. Und auch die Tonebene inkl. der Filmmusik überzeugt. Ab 24. Juli im Kino.

Flaches 3D

Kaum zu glauben, aber 3D kann auch sehr flach wirken...

MUMMIES: SECRETS OF THE PHARAOHS (MUMIEN 3D) (1:1.85, Digital 3D, PCM 5.1)

Wieder einmal schafft es ein für große IMAX-Leinwände konzipiertes Doku-Drama auch auf kleinere Leinwände. Und das in digitalem 3D. Doch das Ergebnis ist enttäuschend. Wer sich speziell wegen des 3D-Effektes zum Kinobesuch verführen lässt, dem gebührt mein Mitleid. Denn der dreidimensionale Effekt wird kaum genutzt. Möglicherweise wurde der auch nur hinterher per Software digital hineingerechnet. Tonmäßig kam das Ganze eigentlich sehr gut rüber und sogar der Subwoofer hatte Arbeit. Die Musik schien mir eindeutig inspiriert zu sein von Jerry Goldsmiths MUMMY Score. Den Film gibt's ab 17. Juli in digitalen 3D-Kinos und als IMAX-Version in Nürnberg zu sehen.

Telefonieren auf Teufel komm raus

Cooler Unterhaltung bei schwülem Wetter...

SELBSTGESPRÄCHE (1:1.85, DD 5.1)

Sehr gut unterhalten fühlte ich mich bei dieser „Dramödie“ aus deutschen Landen. Dort ist ein kleines Call-Center Dreh- und Angelpunkt der Beziehungsprobleme der Angestellten. Im Endeffekt etwas zu lange geraten, aber als Double Feature mit OUTSOURCED durchaus denkbar. Ab 31. Juli im Kino (FSK: ohne Altersbeschränkung).

Und heute Abend darf ich wieder einmal einen Film „nachsitzen“. Denn der deutsche Verleiher hielt es nicht für nötig, von THE EYE eine Pressevorführung anzusetzen. Na schau'n wir mal wie sich das Remake eines asiatischen Top-Films machen wird...

Freitag, 30. Mai 2008

Erwachsenenkarm und Kinderkram

Der filmmäßig frustrierende Freitag kann nur durch ein kühles Weizenbier im Biergarten ausgeglichen werden...

42PLUS (1:1.85, DD 5.1)

Ein österreichisches Beziehungsdrama um ein Paar mittleren Alters mit pupertierendem Töchterlein hat uns alle nicht so von den Socken gehauen und uns deutlich vor Augen geführt, dass auch in unserem Nachbarland weniger gute Filme produziert werden. Kinostart ist der 24. Juli 2008

NIM'S ISLAND (DIE INSEL DER ABENTEUER) (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

Diesen Film hat die von mir sehr geschätzte Jodie Foster bestimmt nur angenommen, um ihren Kleinen eine persönliche Freude zu machen. Kein besonders prickelnder Kinderfilm, aber mit Abigail Breslin (LITTLE MISS SUNSHINE) gut besetzt. Ab 19. Juni in den Kinos.

Shaggy and Scooby-Doo Get a Clue - Volume 2

Scooby, Scooby-Doo! It's time for another fun-filled adventure with Shaggy and his faithful canine companion as they run from ghosts, trip over themselves, and put their stomachs before their brains, but always manage to solve the mystery. This time Shaggy's rich uncle has disappeared, leaving him a huge mansion full of quirky inventions. But something is not right and it's up to Shaggy and Scooby to get to the bottom of things. Of course no Scooby-Doo adventure would be complete without a little help from Freddy, Daphne, and Velma, and a delicious Scooby Snack every now and then to keep them hot on the trail of the villains. This second volume presents four more episodes of hilarious, spooky thrills with television's favorite mystery-solving hound.

Un Flic

Alain Delon, Richard Crenna, Riccardo Cucciolli, Michael Conrad, Paul Crauchet, Simone Valere, Andre Pousse, Jean Desailly, Catherine Deneuve - Dir. Jean-Pierre Melville
Simon (Delon) is a Paris nightclub owner and the leader of a gang of bank robbers. When he and his buddies knock over a small town bank, one of his accomplices is wounded. It isn't long before the local police commissaire, Edourd, takes an interest in the case, and who, unfortunately, is one of Simon's close friends. As Simon and his crew prepare for a much larger heist using the stolen money, Edourd begins to put the pieces of the puzzle together, creating a difficult situation for both friends. A deft and stylish thriller from director Melville (LE SAMOURAI), whose influence is still felt today by directors as diverse as Quentin Tarantino, Jim Jarmusch, and John Woo. It was his last film. Dir. Jay Roach
*Following the knee-slapping hit MEET THE PARENTS, director Jay Roach once again keeps audiences roaring with laughter as he presents this hilarious sequel. This time, young engaged couple Pam (Teri Polo) and Greg (Ben Stiller) are getting their parents together a few months before the wedding. Greg nervously plans out every detail of the trip, only to be usurped by Pam's domineering ex-CIA-man father (Robert DeNiro). Not only has he purchased an RV, insisting they'll be driving from New York City to the Fockers' home in Miami, but he's bringing along his perfect baby grandson.
When they finally arrive at the Fockers' house, Greg's parents, Bernie and Roz (Dustin Hoffman and Barbra Streisand), turn out to be sex-addicted hippies and not at all what the Byrnes (DeNiro and Blythe Danner) had expected.
With one pitfall after another, the film takes the concept of awkward in-law experiences to new heights, from stories about past sexual experiences to detailed discussion of current ones. What's worse, the Fockers are teaching the baby curse words and weaning him on rum, to the shock of his girlfriend, Pam (Teri Polo). But when the couple visits Pam's family home for her sister's wedding, he must first win the approval of her father, Jack (Robert De Niro), a protective

*In 1984, director Michael Mann made television—and fashion—history with his action-packed, neon-lit crime series, MIAMI VICE. The series was a hit for five years, and became a cultural phenomenon that altered male fashion trends and glamorized the drug game. Now Mann, who has made quite a career for himself in Hollywood, with Oscar-nominated films including ALI, HEAT, and THE INSIDER, supersizes and updates his small-screen hit for the moviegoing public, crafting a sparkling, roller-coaster ride of a movie that is perfectly complemented by its bright colors and kinetic movement. MIAMI VICE follows the violent adventures of Crockett (Colin Farrell) and Tubbs (Jamie Foxx). With Miami at the center of a global drug trade, their job of stopping illegal trafficking is hard and dangerous work, yet they are also rewarded with gorgeous girls and local celebrity. But their access to wealth, drugs, and power is

The Mummy Returns

Brendan Fraser, Rachel Weisz, John Hannah, Oded Fehr, Arnold Vosloo, Patricia Velasquez, Rock, Freddie Boath - Dir. Stephen Sommers
Flanked by fabulous computer-generated battle scenes that would make BRAVEHEART proud, THE MUMMY RETURNS is a fast-paced sequel that surpasses the hit 1999 original, both directed by Stephen Sommers. Virtually the entire cast has come back for another exciting go-round, this time trying to prevent Imhotep (Arnold Vosloo) from gaining control of the Bracelet of Anubis and taking on the Scorpion King (the Rock) for control of the world. But to gain that power, Imhotep and his vicious true love, Anck-Su-Namun (Patricia Velasquez), must get to the Oasis of Ahm Shere before Rick O'Connell (Brendan Fraser), his wife, Evie (Rachel Weisz), their son, Alex (Freddie Boath), the mysterious Ardeth Bay (Oded Fehr), and Evie's brother, Jonathan (John Hannah, who provides much of the comic relief). Set in 1933, THE MUMMY RETURNS combines elements of the STAR WARS and INDIANA JONES films in letting loose a scintillating thrill-ride of a movie, chock-full of terrific special effects and marvelous locations (Morocco, Jordan, and London), erupting in a spirited tale of flight and fantasy, sword and sorcery. P.S. I Love You (Blu-ray)

Two-time Oscar winner Hillary Swank tries her hand at romantic comedy in this touching film based on the bestselling Irish novel. Holly Kennedy (Swank) and her charming Irish husband Gerry (Gerard Butler) are a young couple struggling to get by in New York City. Their marriage is 10 years strong, and they are madly in love, but the fates soon step in, when Gerry develops cancer and dies. Holly is completely devastated, and her friends Denise (Lisa Kudrow) and Sharon (Gina Gershon) do their best to console her. Her mother (Kathy Bates) and sister, Rose (Nellie McKay), also offer their support, but it seems nothing can pull Holly out of her grief. Then one day, she begins to receive love letters Gerry penned before his death. The letters are filled with various stories and instructions, and one of them even contains a plan that sends her and her friends on a trip to Ireland. As Gerry's posthumous letters buoy her up, Holly slowly begins to piece her life back together. His letters help her to celebrate their special love story, and remind her that she must continue to live her life, and seek out happiness

Penelope

Simon Woods, Nigel Havers, Lenny Henry, Christina Ricci, James McAvoy, Catherine O'Hara, Reese Witherspoon, Peter Dinklage, Richard E. Grant, Nick Frost - Dir. Mark Palansky
Like Tim Burton's EDWARD SCISSORHANDS and the TV show PUSHING DAISIES, PENELOPE is a modern fairy tale, complete with candy colors and whimsical cinematography. PENELOPE begins with a generations-old curse by a jilted lover: the next girl in the aristocratic Wilhern family will be born with a pig's snout and ears. Though ages pass, the bad luck finally manifests itself in young Penelope (Christina Ricci) much to the shame of her mother (Christopher Guest favorite Catherine O'Hara). In an effort to break the curse, her mother and father (Richard E. Grant, WITHNAIL AND I) try to bring in a series of blue-blooded suitors. But when they see her face, the men all run screaming. Enter Max (James McAvoy), a down-on-his-luck gambler who connects with Penelope. But when he is exposed as a fraud, the heartbroken girl escapes into the surrounding city. Though she hides her face with a scarf, Penelope gets to experience life outside her family's mansion for the first time.

This impressive, old-fashioned made-for-TV disaster movie, like the original, takes place on an enormous and doomed luxury liner, where thousands have gathered to celebrate New Year's Eve. When a terrorist bomb explodes on board, the survivors are forced to fight for their lives to escape the upside-down sinking ship—including the terrorist himself. The action-packed drama boasts a capable cast, including Adam Baldwin, Steve Guttenberg, Rutger Hauer, and C. Thomas Howell.

Reno 911! - The Complete Fifth Season - Uncensored

Kerri Kenney, Cedric Yarbrough, Niecy Nash, Carlos Alazraqui, Wendi McLendon-Covey, Thomas Lennon, Ben Garant

Created by the team behind the cult television series THE STATE and VIVA VARIETY, Comedy Central's RENO 911! parodies reality cop shows through the outrageous antics of an inept police force in Reno, Nevada. The series' eccentric characters—a closeted lieutenant in hot shorts, a former topless dancer, a bilingual police dog trainer, and more than a few mentally unhinged deputies—are brought to zany life by a funny cast that includes THE STATE alumni Ben Garant, Thomas Lennon, and Kerri Kenney. This collection presents every episode from the series' fifth season in unblurred,

Bernard Hill - Dir. Chuck Russell

Wrestler-turned-actor The Rock gets his first starring role with THE SCORPION KING. A prequel to Stephen Sommers' wildly successful THE MUMMY (1999) and THE MUMMY RETURNS (2001), THE SCORPION KING tells the action-packed story of Mathayus (Rock), an Akkadian assassin who is the only man strong enough to destroy the vile Memnon (Steven Brand). Memnon, a power hungry warlord, uses the prescience of Cassandra (Kelly Hu), a beautiful seer, to ensure an endless succession of victories. Understanding that to defeat Memnon one must first eliminate Cassandra, Mathayus journeys to Gomorrah to infiltrate Memnon's palace and kill Cassandra. But when he lays eyes on the sultry beauty, he is unable to take her life. It isn't long before sparks begin flying and Cassandra is using her powers to aid Mathayus and his cohorts, including the bumbling Arpid (Grant Heslov), and Balthazar (Michael Clark Duncan), a powerful tribe leader who is also looking for a way to end Memnon's reign. Ignoring a vision from Cassandra that predicts his death, Mathayus charges into battle nonetheless, hoping to silence Memnon once and for a

Secretary

Maggie Gyllenhaal, James Spader - Dir. Steven Shainberg

The masochist says to the sadist, „Hurt me.“ The sadist replies, „No.“ Everybody's happy. This strange balance plays heavily into the Steven Shainberg-directed SECRETARY, based on a short story by Mary Gaitskill. Lee Holloway (Maggie Gyllenhaal) is a troubled young woman with a secret, destructive addiction fueled by her mother's overprotectiveness and her father's alcoholism. Sheltered and wholly dependent on other people, Lee's only form of self-expression is in this private, painful habit. That is, until she meets her new boss, the lawyer E. Edward Gray (James Spader), who hires her as his secretary. It is exciting for Lee to hold down a job, even if she is a basket case in the office. Mr. Gray watches Lee, studies her, and slowly begins to correct both her typing errors and her personality flaws. At first Mr. Gray's dominance appears scary and overbearing, a true threat to Lee's naive, fragile psyche. But as the film carefully develops these unique characters, revealing their odd strengths and weaknesses, it becomes delightfully clear that Lee and Mr. Gray can genuinely help each other.

Freddie Highmore, Mary-Louise Parker, Nick Nolte, Joan Plowright, David Strathairn - Dir. Mark Waters
Based on the bestselling series of children's fantasy novels of the same name by Holly Black and Tony DiTerlizzi, THE SPIDERWICK CHRONICLES follows the adventures of the Grace family, newly transplanted from New York City to an inherited home in the remote New England woods. Angry with his mother (Mary-Louise Parker) about the move, the sulky Jared (Freddie Highmore) begin to explore the strange old house, and discovers a magical tome written by his great, great uncle Arthur Spiderwick (David Strathairn). Soon Jared and his twin brother, Simon (also played by Highmore with the aid of seamless special effects), are drawn into a realm of goblins, boggarts, and ogres—a reality that coexists with the human world. By the time the boys' older sister, Mallory (Sarah Bolger), is in on their secret, the siblings are steeped in a conflict with the evil shape-shifting ogre Mulgarath (Nick Nolte), who will stop at nothing to get Spiderwick's book.

There Will Be Blood (Blu-ray)

Daniel Day-Lewis, Paul Dano, Ciaran Hinds, Kevin J. O'Connor, Dillon Freasier - Dir. Paul Thomas Anderson
Director Paul Thomas Anderson's THERE WILL BE BLOOD is a masterly, unflinching examination of a consummately evil man. Daniel Plainview (via a transcendent performance by the great Daniel Day-Lewis) is, as he likes to remind those around him, an oil man: he finds it, he drills for it, and he makes money from it. Following a tip from a visitor named Paul Sunday, whose family sits atop a veritable ocean of oil, Plainview travels to the town of New Boston, California, with his young son. Sunday's preacher brother Eli (both roles are played by the excellent Paul Dano) grudgingly accepts Plainview's ambitions under the condition that he help fund the town church. As Plainview's plans come to fruition, a series of events begin to fracture the insular world he has constructed for himself, pitting Plainview against Sunday and forcing him to become even more vindictive and ruthless.

Fralav, Honore Bostel, Francois Maisongross, Tony Knepper - Dir. Jacques Tati
Jacques Tati's beleaguered and oblivious alter ego Mr. Hulot returns for his fourth screen appearance in this ridiculous and sublime automobile-focused film. Cars and drivers, present as subplots in Tati's previous comedies, take center stage in TRAFFIC. In his latest incarnation, Hulot is a vehicle designer at the Parisian firm Altra. Having recently completed the prototype for a Rube Goldberg mousetraplike ultraconvenient camper van, Hulot and Altra's pesky public relations girl, Maria (Maria Kimberly), embark to bring their newest creation to an auto show in Holland. The eagle eye of Tati's airtight humor follows Hulot on his doomed path to Amsterdam; he runs out of gas, has various accidents and engine difficulties, and invokes the wrath of both the police and customs officers. Interspersed between gags are seemingly documentary visions of French motorists picking their noses, being mimicked by their own windshield wipers, and generally causing trouble. Minimal dialogue, spectacular visual puns, and an awe-inspiring balletlike car crash complete the Tati take on car-and-driver culture.

Michael Gross, Ariana Richards, Charlotte Stewart
Burt Gummer has been away from home too long. Upon returning to Perfection, Nevada, he realizes that the town of terror has been turned into a tourist trap exploiting the town's reputation as the home of giant killer sand worms. When a simulated attack becomes the real thing, Gummer dons combat gear, loads of ammo and weaponry, and his Atlanta Hawks cap to go back into battle against the very creatures that originally drove him away. Not only does he have to deal with Graboids mutating into the frightening Shrieker monsters, but this time a new, possibly indestructible worm mutation is threatening. Van Helsing

All varieties of otherworldly creatures come out to play in Stephen Sommers' gothic carnival. Frankenstein's monster, ferocious werewolves, vampire bat babies, a maniacal scientist named Igor, and a CGI Dr. Jekyll are just a few. When they come together, a thrilling fantasy adventure results, making VAN HELSING a visual feast. Destined to fight the world's evil, Van Helsing (Hugh Jackman) is a warrior in a cowboy hat and a trench coat, heavily armed with a rapid-fire multi-arrow crossbow, among other gadgetry. A legion of monks in Rome send Van Helsing to Transylvania to hunt the immortal Count Dracula (Richard Roxburgh), who terrorizes the local people with the help of his three vampire brides. Especially threatened is the vixen Anna Valerious (Kate Beckinsale), whose family also strives to kill the Count. Van Helsing and Anna Valerious work together, searching for the secret door to Dracula's lair. But it is only after massive battles involving impossible stunts, races on horse-pulled carriages, and the desecration of enchanting medieval castles (all done with dizzying computer graphics) that they suc

Screwball comedy meets film noir in the lighthearted movie WATCHING THE DETECTIVES. Cillian Murphy forgoes the menace of past roles in RED EYE and BATMAN BEGINS to play film buff Neil. He's so busy watching and quoting movies that life is passing him by. Enter Violet (Lucy Liu, KILL BILL VOL. 1), a free-spirited beauty who doesn't even own a TV. Opposites (inevitably) attract, and soon Neil's life is thrown into fun-filled chaos. Violet believes in living life, not watching others do so, and her energetic approach has an effect on Neil.

Witnesses

Johan Libereau, Michel Blanc, Emmanuelle Beart, Sami Bouajila, Julie Depardieu, Constance Dollé, Lorenzo Balducci - Dir. André Téchiné
Legendary French film director André Téchiné goes back to 1980s Paris in the tender, heartbreaking THE WITNESSES. Emmanuelle Beart (8 WOMEN) stars as Sarah, a children's book author who has just had her first child with husband Mehdi (Sami Bouajila), a vice cop. Sarah's doctor and close friend, Adrien (Michel Blanc), has fallen in love with the much younger Manu (Johan Libereau), who enjoys being taken care of by the doctor but prefers a platonic relationship—and instead falls hard for Mehdi. Mehdi and Manu start a torrid sexual affair, but when Manu becomes ill with a mysterious disease, the complex entanglement between the four protagonists—as well as Sandra (Constance Dollé), a prostitute who befriends Manu, and Julie (Julie Depardieu), Manu's sister who wants to become an opera star—threatens to tear everything apart. Beart is outstanding as Sarah, a strong, independent woman who discovers while writing her first adult novel that she is not cut out to be a mother. Meanwhile, Adrien wants to be more than just a father figure to Manu. Sarah actually wants both she and Mehdi to have lovers, as

Pete Seeger: The Power of Song

Pete Seeger is a revered singer and performer, an ambassador of the world's folk music traditions, and a patriot, but whenever Jim Brown's very moving documentary verges too close to hagiography, interviews with the gently self-effacing subject himself steer the focus back onto the issues and the music. Using a rich array of archival film footage, photography, and intimate one-on-one conversations, Brown tells the story of the singer's life, from his roustabout childhood as the son of itinerant musicians, through his radical days on the Harvard University campus (where, during WWII he received his political awakening), his military service, and marriage to lifetime love Toshi Seeger.

Nude Co-Ed Beach Bowl Tournament

Unlike the Super Bowl, any wardrobe malfunctions at halftime during these particular festivities would be downright redundant. Hosts Jennifer Korbin, Erica Campbell, and their friends invite viewers to be spectators as they oversee a sexy tropical island tournament with games including (but not limited to) a bikini ice relay and hot coeds in blindfolds.

Poisoned by Polonium: The Litvinenko File

When former Russian agent Alexander Litvinenko was assassinated in London in 2006, it shocked the world. Controversy swirled around who was responsible, with many fingers pointing to Putin's government. This documentary looks at the truth behind Litvinenko's death, and exposes the increasing power of the new KGB, the FSB

Prayer of Peace - Relief and Resistance in Burma's War Zones

With ethnic and multinational conflicts raging around the globe, many smaller yet no less tragic military actions get overlooked. Such is the case of the Karen people of Burma, who struggle each day to survive while the Burmese military government prevents them from receiving the food and medicine they need to maintain life and human dignity. The brave filmmakers behind this project cross into hostile territory to share the Burmese tragedy with the world.

Where in the World is Osama Bin Laden?

Documentarian Morgan Spurlock rocketed to fame after daring to take on the fast food industry in the entertaining and much-lauded SUPERSIZE ME. For his follow-up, Spurlock wades back into controversial waters, and attempts something even more dangerous than a month of eating Big Macs: he decides to hunt down the globe's foremost terrorist, Osama Bin Laden. When the film opens, Spurlock has just learned that his wife, Alex, is pregnant. Using this news as a springboard, he decides he must hunt down the „world's most dangerous man“ in order to guarantee the safety of his new child. Thus begins Spurlock's journey into some of the most wartorn and perilous places on the globe: Egypt, Israel, Pakistan, Afghanistan, Saudi Arabia, and Morocco. Spurlock travels from country to country, popping into mosques, fundamentalist Muslim schools, shantytowns, army bases, the Gaza strip, and the local mall, asking everyone along the way if they might know where he can find Osama. The provocative question never fails to elicit an interesting response, and Spurlock uses it to open up a dialogue about the people's feelings

Without the King

This profile of Africa's last ruling monarch, the King of Swaziland, contrasts the sharp divide between King Mswati III's luxurious life and the dire predicament of his people. Home to severe poverty, Swaziland suffers an uncontrolled AIDS epidemic and the lowest life-expectancy on Earth. As political unrest builds, WITHOUT THE KING captures the country as it erupts into revolution.

Women and Spirituality - The Goddess Trilogy

The feminine roots of spirituality are explored in this provocative three-part documentary that is full of startling connections. „Goddess Remembered“ explores the long history of goddess worship while „The Burning Times“ looks at European witch hunts; both films examine their relation to mounting environmental crises. Finally, in „Full Circle,“ a panel of noted thinkers and scholars discuss female spirituality and its place in creating a new, more sustainable world.

Young & Restless in China

This documentary follows the lives of nine young people against the backdrop of China's emerging economy. Over the course of four years, much changes in their lives as their own country is transformed by consumer culture and new opportunities. Chinese hip-hop and rock & roll provide the soundtrack for this very different look at life there.
