Hallo Laserdisc- und DVD-Fans, liebe Filmfreunde!

Ende August ist es wieder soweit: das Fantasy Filmfest gastiert auf seiner Tour durch Deutschland wieder in Stuttgart. Vom 31. August an wird wieder eine ganze Woche lang gemetzelt, erstochen, erschossen, geköpft und zerfleischt, dass sich die Balken biegen. In ihrem Jubiläumsjahr (das Fantasy Filmfest feiert 25. Geburtstag) präsentieren die Veranstalter knapp 70 neue Filme aus den Bereichen Horror, Science-Fiction und Thriller – auch wenn sich so mancher Film gar nicht eindeutig einordnen lassen will. Für uns ist das Festival immer wieder ein willkommener Anlass, uns über die neuesten Tendenzen im Genre-Kino zu informieren und gleichzeitig viele Filme auf der großen Leinwand in schönem Ambiente zu ge-nießen, die hierzulande erst gar keine Kinoauswertung erfahren, sondern direkt auf DVD oder Blu-ray vermarktet werden. Da uns der Konsum von etwa 40 Filmen innerhalb einer Woche meist ziemlich an den Rand der wohligen Erschöpfung treibt, werden wir in alter Tradition direkt im Anschluss an diesen Filmmarathon Betriebsferien machen. Unser Büro wird daher in der Zeit vom 31. August bis einschließlich 18. September geschlossen bleiben. Wer uns schon lange kennt, der weiß auch, dass bereits kurz nach dem Fantasy Filmfest ein weiteres höchst interessantes Filmfestival ansteht: das Todd-AO 70mm Filmfestival in der Schauburg in Karlsruhe. Ab 07. Oktober treffen sich dort Widescreen-Enthusiasten aus der ganzen Welt für drei volle Tage, um die längst vergangene Zeit gepflegter Roadshow-Präsentationen wieder aufleben zu lassen. Geplant sind bisher 70mm-Screenings von DANCE CRAZE (mit einem fulminanten Mehrkanalton, bei dem selbst anspruchsvolle Heimkinofans vor Neid erblassen werden!), DIE GRÖSSTE GESCHICHTE ALLER ZEITEN (in Ultra Panavision), STOSSSTRUPP GOLD und THE BAT WHISPERS (der vom Oscar-prämierten Filmhistoriker Kevin Brownlow persönlich vorgestellt wird). Alle Details zum Festival finden Sie wie immer in einem der nächsten Newsletter. Wir freuen uns schon darauf!

Beauty and the Beast

Wann ist man es wert, geliebt zu werden?

Hollywood ist voller Geschichten über die einzig wahre, unsterbliche und wunderbare Liebe. Über Hindernisse, die zu überwinden sind, Masken, die fallen müssen, und Worte, die es zu finden gilt, um der Magie der Liebe endlich habhaft zu werden. Grandiose Storys, keine Frage. Doch was, wenn das Hindernis ... das Aussehen ist? Die Filmjournalistin Frances Schoenberger schreibt in ihrer Autobiographie, dass die Bevölkerung der Filmstudios mehrheitlich aus unsicheren Menschen besteht. Dass die größten Stars jeglicher Kategorie ständig gutes Zureden brauchen, um sich ihres Wertes zu vergewissern. Diese grundsätzliche Unsicherheit setzt sich im Jahr 2011 verstärkt in den Produkten durch. Hollywood, die Fabrik, die unsere Träume und Meinungen so oft lenkt und dabei so tut, als wäre sie Vorreiter des zivilisierten Denkens, befürwortet Diskriminierung, wo sie nur kann. Ist es banal, Hollywood Oberflächlichkeit vorzuwerfen? Vielleicht, doch das Problem ist vorhanden. Beleuchten wir es nicht, dann gibt es für die Traummacher keinen Grund, etwas zu verändern. Wir vergessen allzu oft, dass auch wir, die Zuschauer, die Konsumenten, ein Wörtchen mitzureden haben, wenn es um die Inhalte geht.

Inhalte wie in Captain America: The First Avenger. Als schwächtiges Männlein hat Steve Rogers keine Chance. Nicht auf eine Karriere, nicht auf eine Aufgabe, die ihn erfüllt, und schon gar nicht auf Liebe. Weil sein Patriotismus aber grenzenlos ist, lässt er sich auf ein Experiment ein, dass ihn zum muskelbepackten Captain America macht. Ein Superheld, den nichts aufhalten kann. Plötzlich genießt er Ansehen bei seinen Mitmenschen und die Liebe zielt sich nicht mehr. Wieso wurde der Schwächling, der, allen Widrigkeiten zum Trotz, der Armee beitrifft, bemitleidet und verhöhnt? Im Innern weiß er, dass er wenig Chancen hat, ein adäquater Soldat zu werden. Aber sein guter Wille ist wahrlich inspirierend. Warum sind diese Motivation, dieses Feuer im Herzen nicht gut genug für die Frauenwelt? Erst wenn ein Mann seine Liebste mit einer Hand stemmen kann, ist er der Liebe wert? Entspreche dies auch nur im Entferntesten der Realität, die Menschheit wäre längst ausgestorben. Ist es nicht erstaunlich, dass Rogers die Ohrfeigen, die er vom Leben bekommen hat, nicht zurückgibt? Eigentlich hätte diese Figur einen sehr glaubwürdigen Bösewicht abgegeben!

Limitless mit Bradley Cooper diskriminiert auf etwas andere Art und Weise. Der unmotivierte Loser-Schriftsteller Eddie stolpert über eine Wunderdroge, die seine Gehirnfunktionen ins Geniale steigert. Vom neuen Buch über erfolgreiche Börsenspekulationen bis hin zum Senatorenamt – alles ein Klacks. Seine Freundin, die den einstmals müffelnden Ungekämmten zwar liebte, aber trotzdem verließ, kommt zurück. Seine neuen Fähigkeiten sind ihr zwar suspekt, doch nicht genug um Abstand von dem reichen Glattrasierten zu halten. Eddie hat das, was ihm dank der Pillen widerfährt, in keiner Weise verdient. Doch das ist völlig egal: Er und sein Erfolg sehen gut aus. Hollywood verrät in diesem Film seine eigenen perversen Träume. Abkürzungen auf dem Weg zum Ruhm sind heißer begehrt als kostenlose Brustvergrößerungen. Es ist eine Sache, so zu leben. Castingshows und Reality-TV gaukeln Millionen jungen Zuschauern vor, dass es möglich ist, ohne Anstrengung ein Star zu sein. Es ist eine ganz andere Sache, diese Mentalität in einem Film wie Limitless gut zu heißen. Der Film geht so weit zu sagen, dass der wirkliche Loser derjenige ist, der es nicht auf die Überholspur schafft. Ganz gleich wie er diese erreicht hat. Was circa 99,9% der Menschheit zu Verlierern deklariert. Ist das eine Aussage, die wir mit dem Kauf eines Kinotickets billigen wollen? Uns beleidigen lassen und dafür noch draufzahlen? Dann doch lieber die bunte, glitzernde Welt der Elle Woods in Legally Blonde. Darin ackert sich Reese Witherspoon durch acht Jahre College und Jurastudium, obwohl sie es dank reicher Eltern gar nicht bräuchte. Trotz Chihuahua in Kleidchen und pinken Notizblöcken ist es für sie ein harter Weg nach oben. Bittere Erkenntnisse über die eigene Naivität bleiben ihr nicht erspart und führen zu einem neuen Selbstwertgefühl. Ein Film der oberflächlicher nicht aussehen könnte, beinhaltet wertvolle Lektionen für seine Zuschauer.

Schließlich sehen wir nicht nur in den Filmen selbst die plastinierten, unerreichbaren Träume Hollywoods. Wir erkennen sie auch in den Bewohnern von Tinseltown. Erinnern Sie sich an Jennifer Hudson, die einen Oscar für ihre Nebenrolle in Dreamgirls bekam? Damals steckten Talent und eine gewaltige Stimme in einem mehr als pfundigen Frauenkörper. Heute hat sich Jennifer auf Größe 38 runtergehungert. Ihr Können wird nicht mehr gefeiert, sondern dass sie es geschafft hat abzunehmen. All jene, die einst enthusiastisch waren, weil es eine dicke Frau so weit gebracht hat, huldigen ihr jetzt, weil sie den ultimativen Hollywood-Bösewicht besiegt hat: das Fett. Und Gabourey Sidibe, letztes Jahr Oscar-nominiert für ihre Hauptrolle in Precious? Sie ist immer noch übergewichtig und bekommt ... Nebenrollen. Manchmal. Demnächst spielt sie ein dickes Zimmermädchen in Tower Heist. Nikki Blonsky – Hairspray-Remake 2007 – schlägt sich mittlerweile als Schuhverkäuferin durch. Falls sie nicht gerade krampfhaft versucht, in der Presse Aufmerksamkeit zu erregen, um wieder an Schauspieljobs zu kommen. Ein Armutszeugnis nicht für Blonsky, sondern die Filmindustrie.

Wir gehen ins Kino, um eine Welt zu erfahren, die unsere sein könnte. Wir erwarten nicht hundertprozentigen Realismus, dann könnten wir gleich zu Hause bleiben. Es ist nicht zu viel verlangt, gesündere Vorbilder erleben zu wollen. Ob physisch, mental oder emotional – es gibt unendlich viele Nuancen des menschlichen Daseins. Leiden wir nicht schon genug? Unsere Unterhaltung sollte uns motivieren, inspirieren und vielleicht etwas in uns auslösen. Wir brauchen nicht noch mehr schlechtes Gewissen.

Hollywood muss noch lernen, dass wir alle schön sind. Sonst würden wir nicht ständig versuchen, so auszusehen wie die Person neben uns. Äußerlich und innerlich.

Motherf***ing Aliens!

Als erster Film dieser Woche schaffte es der letzte Film des kommenden Fantasy Filmfests in die Pressevorführung.

ATTACK THE BLOCK (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

OT: Attack The Block

Verleih: Wild Bunch

Land/Jahr: Großbritannien 2011

Regie: Joe Cornish

Darsteller: Nick Frost, Jodie Whittaker, Luke Treadaway

Kinostart: 22.09.2011

Was als ein ganz gewöhnlicher Straßenraub einer Jugendgang beginnt, entwickelt sich binnen Minuten zu einem Kampf auf Leben und Tod. Denn gleich nachdem die frechen Kids Krankenschwester Sam auf ihrem Nachhauseweg um ihr Geld und um ihren Ring erleichtert haben, fällt etwas Schweres vom Himmel und durchbohrt mit ohrenbetäubendem Lärm das Dach des Autos, das jemand in dem Londoner Ghetto abgestellt hatte. Als sich Moses, der Anführer der coolen Gang, die Sache etwas genauer ansieht, wird er von einem affenartigen Wesen gebissen. Wutentbrannt machen die Jugendlichen Jagd auf das Wesen mit allem, was sie aufzubieten haben: Messer, Schlagstöcke und Feuerwerkskörper. Mit der Trophäe auf dem Rücken kehren sie in ihren Block zurück. Doch das seltsame Wesen war nicht alleine. Die Ghettobewohner sehen sich plötzlich mit einer Invasion von Außerirdischen konfrontiert... "Wenn uns schon Aliens heimsuchen, warum dann ausgerechnet an einem Ort wie diesem?" fragt eines der Gang-Mitglieder im Verlauf des Films und bringt den Reiz des Films damit auf den Punkt. Denn nichts könnte trostloser sein als jenes Slumviertel im zeitgenössischen London, das schon für Filme wie SHANK oder HARRY BROWN Pate stand. Im vorliegenden Film wird das Ganze natürlich mit bösem britischen Witz ironisch präsentiert. Was können einer schlagkräftigen Truppe schon ein paar Marsmännchen anhaben? Wobei diese Marsmännchen einer vollkommen brutalen Spezies angehören, auf vier Beinen gehen und ein leuchtendes Gebiss haben. Dass die fiesen Kreaturen damit böse Wunden anrichten können, wird im Film mit reichlich Blut demonstriert. Alles natürlich mit bestem Ghetto-Slang garniert, der vermutlich in der deutschen Fassung einfach wegsynchronisiert wird. Immerhin wird ATTACK THE BLOCK einer der ganz wenigen Filme des Fantasy Filmfests (er wird dort als Abschlussfilm laufen) sein, denen ein regulärer Kinostart zuteil wird. Die im Presseheft suggerierten Vergleiche mit SHAUN OF THE DEAD allerdings sind etwas hochgegriffen. Dessen Qualitäten erreicht Joe Cornishs Regiedebüt nicht, doch dürfte er sich hervorragend als Partyfilm eignen. Schon alleine der Monster wegen, unter deren wuscheligen Kostümen Zweibeiner stecken.

Das Küchenlabor und der zweite Frühling

Eine Dokumentation und ein schöner Sommerfilm machten heute meinen Kinotag.

EL BULLI – COOKING IN PROGRESS

(1:1.85, DD 5.1)

Verleih: Alamode (Filmagentinnen)

Land/Jahr: Deutschland 2010

Regie: Gereon Wetzel

Darsteller: Ferran Adrià, Oriol Castro, Eduard Xatruch

Kinostart: 15.09.2011

Es ist wohl das berühmteste Restaurant der Welt: das "El Bulli" an der spanischen Küste bei Barcelona. Inhaber und 3-Sterne-Koch Ferran Adria wurde für seine experimentierfreudige Molekularküche bereits mehrfach prämiert. Der eigentliche Clou bei der Geschichte: das "El Bulli" hat nur sechs Monate im Jahr geöffnet, nämlich von Juni bis Oktober. Die verbleibenden Monate zieht sich der Meister mit seiner Crew in ein hochmodernes Küchenlabor in Barcelona zurück, wo sie gemeinsam neue Kreationen entwickeln. Ob es nun sich auflösende Ravioli sind oder Cocktails aus Wasser und Haselnussöl – nichts scheint hier unmöglich zu sein. Regisseur Gereon Wetzel hat den gesamten Kreislauf - von der ersten Idee im Labor bis hin zum Betrieb des Restaurants – über den Zeitraum von einem Jahr mit seinem Filmteam beobachtet. Meister Adria lässt sich und seinem Team ungehemmt über die Schulter schauen. Egal, ob ein Essenexperiment misslingt oder von den Köchen sogar als genial eingestuft wird – die Kamera ist stets dabei. Sie ist auch dann dabei, wenn Adria seine etwa 70-köpfige Mannschaft auf die neue Restaurantsaison einswört und seine Philosophie erläutert. Der Film bleibt dabei vollkommen unkommentiert. Das ist einerseits gut, um die Stimmung im Küchenlabor und unter Realbedingungen während des laufenden Betriebs möglichst unverfälscht zu präsentieren. Auf der anderen Seite jedoch hätte man sich etwas tiefere Einblicke in die Philosophie der Molekularküche gewünscht und auch gerne etwas über die Hauptakteure hinter den Kulissen erfahren. Beim Betrachten der exotischen 20- oder gar 35-Gänge-Menüs kann einem dabei aber trotzdem das Wasser im Munde zusammenlaufen, auch wenn man angesichts der winzigen Portionen fast schon davon ausgehen kann, dass man davon nicht satt werden wird. Aber darum geht es in der Küche des Ferran Adria ja auch gar nicht.

GIANNI UND DIE FRAUEN (1:1.85, DD 5.1)

OT: Gianni E Le Donne

Verleih: Neue Visionen

Land/Jahr: Italien 2011

Regie: Gianni Di Gregorio

Darsteller: Gianni Di Gregorio, Valeria De

Franciscis Bondoni, Alfonso Santagata

Kinostart: 22.09.2011

Sein Tagesablauf ist immer derselbe. Seit Gianni schon mit 50 Jahren in en Ruhestand gegangen ist, verbringt der Ehemann und Vater einer studierenden Tochter, seine Zeit damit, seinen Hund und de der Nachbarin Gassi zu führen, einzukaufen Rechnungen zu bezahlen und vor allem für die Eskapaden seiner alten Mutter aufzukommen. Eigentlich ist sein Leben schon gelaufen. Als ihm sein Kumpel jedoch steckt, dass das Leben mit Ende 50 noch lange nicht gelaufen ist, sieht er plötzlich auf Schritt und Tritt schöne Frauen um ihn herum. Denn das ist es was er am meisten vermisst. Eine Affäre muss also her! Doch für den gutmütigen Gianni ist das gar nicht so einfach mit der Liebe. Als ihm jedoch plötzlich wieder seine Jugendliebe über den Weg läuft, ist es um ihn geschehen... Man muss ihn einfach mögen, wenn er schmachttenden Blickes schönen Frauen jeden Alters hinterherschaut. Hauptdarsteller und Regisseur Gianni Di Gregorio verkörpert die Figur des äußerlich zwar alternden, aber innerlich noch immer von der heimlichen Liebe träumenden Gianni wirklich perfekt. Das gilt aber auch für den Rest des Ensembles. Valeria De Franciscis Bondoni als Giannis Mutter, eine steinalte Aristokratin, die gerne Poker spielt und sich das Fernsehgerät zu jeder Tages- und Nachtzeit vom Sohnmann justieren lässt, ist einfach köstlich. Passend zur Liebe fängt die Kamera von Gogo Bianchi das leicht beschwingte Sommerflair des Bella Italia großartig ein. Ein schöner Sommerfilm zum Träumen und Schmunzeln.

Ein Künstler beim Kreativprozess

Den Wochenabschluss bildete eine Dokumentation über einen bedeutenden zeitgenössischen Kunstmaler.

GERHARD RICHTER PAINTING (1:1.85,

Wolfram Hannemanns

Film-Blog

DD 5.1)

Verleih: Piffel

Land/Jahr: Deutschland 2011

Regie: Corinna Belz

Darsteller: Gerhard Richter, Norbert Arns, Sabine Moritz-Richter

Kinostart: 08.09.2011

In ihrem Dokumentarfilm versucht sich Regisseurin Corinna Belz der Person des Künstlers Gerhard Richter zu nähern. Insbesondere dessen Schaffensprozess steht dabei im Mittelpunkt. Richter ist schon seit vielen Jahrzehnten im Geschäft und gilt als einer der Großen unter den zeitgenössischen Malern. Die Kamera beobachtet den Künstler in verschiedenen Ateliers, wo er an großformatigen abstrakten Werken arbeitet. Das anzuschauen ist sehr interessant, gibt es doch einen tiefen Einblick in die Entstehungsgeschichte solcher übergroßen Bilder. Sieht ein Bild für den Laien aus, als wäre es längst vollendet, so legt der Künstler erneut Hand an und verändert das Bild in Farbe und Struktur komplett. Dazu hört man einen der beiden Assistenten von Gerhard Richter sagen: "Wenn das Bild dem Betrachter gefällt, ist es höchste Zeit, es zu verändern!" So fordern seine Bilder ihren Künstler immer wieder zum Weitermachen heraus. Corinna Belz begleitet Richter auch zu einigen seiner Ausstellungen in den USA und England und zeigt Richter dabei als einen Menschen, dem die Nähe zum Publikum nicht unbedingt behagt. Auch die Anwesenheit einer Kamera beim eigentlich intimen Prozess der Kreativität gefällt ihm nicht so sehr, führt sie doch dazu, dass er sich anders verhält. Belz' Film bleibt fast vollständig unkommentiert, abgesehen von ein paar Fragen, die die Regisseurin dem Künstler aus dem Off stellt. Ergänzt wird das Portrait des Künstlers durch kurze TV-Interviews aus den sechziger Jahren sowie etlichen Parallelfahrten über sein Oeuvre. Recht wenig erfährt man indes über Richters Privatleben. Insgesamt sicher kein Film, den man unbedingt im Kino anschauen muss. Eine TV-Ausstrahlung tut's auch.

Affentheater

Mit einem Blockbuster eröffnete heute die neue Pressewoche.

PLANET DER AFFEN: PREVOLUTION
(1:2.35, DD 5.1)

OT: The Rise Of the Planet Of The Apes

Verleih: Fox

Land/Jahr: USA 2011

Regie: Rupert Wyatt

Darsteller: James Franco, Freida Pinto,

John Lithgow

Kinostart: 11.08.2011

Seit über fünf Jahren bereits forscht Will Rodman in seinem Labor an einem Medikament gegen Alzheimer. Als Versuchskaninchen dienen ihm Schimpansen. Gerade als er sich an seinem Ziel glaubt kommt es im Labor zu einem Zwischenfall mit einem äußerst aggressiven Schimpansenweibchen, das von den Wachleuten daraufhin getötet wird. Wills Projekt wird auf Eis gelegt. Erst jetzt erfährt er, dass das Weibchen schwanger war und ein Schimpansenbaby gebar. Will nimmt sich heimlich des Babys an und nennt es Caesar. Es entwickelt sich zu einem superintelligenten Schimpansen. Gleichzeitig führt Will heimlich Versuche an seinem an Alzheimer erkrankten Vater durch – mit durchschlagendem Erfolg. Ein paar Jahre später verlangen es die Umstände, dass Will seinen Caesar in ein Tierheim gibt. In seiner Gefangenschaft dort entwickelt sich Caesar dank seiner genetisch bedingten Intelligenz zum Führer aller Affen... Mit "Prevolution" schildert Regisseur Rupert Wyatt die Vorgeschichte zum Filmklassiker PLANET DER AFFEN. Er tut dies mit State-of-the-Art Trickeffekten aus dem Hause WETA sowie der Performance-Capture von Andy Serkis, der schon mystischen Wesen in HERR DER RINGE und KING KONG Leben einhauchte. Zweifelsohne stehen in "Prevolution" die Trickaufnahmen im Mittelpunkt. Die Gesellschaftskritik und Psychologie, deren Potenzial in der Geschichte durchaus vorhanden wäre, wird dabei leider aus dem Fokus gerückt und verkommt fast zur Nebensächlichkeit. Nebensächlich auch die Figur der Tierärztin Caroline, die von Freida Pinto gespielt wird. Ihre Rolle dient offenbar nur dafür, hier und dort einen Farbklecks einzubauen. Würde man ihre Rolle aus dem Film streichen – niemand würde es bemerken. Was übrig bleibt ist ein auf Action angelegter Film, der speziell im letzten Drittel diese auch überzeugend zur Schau stellt. Allerdings sei die Frage gestattet, woher denn die ganzen Affen stammen, die ganz San Francisco überrennen? Der Film jedenfalls gibt dafür keine plausible Erklärung. Aber auch das ist vermutlich nur eine Nebensächlichkeit. Für Freunde des Originals aus dem Jahre 1968 gibt es übrigens ein kurzes Wiedersehen mit Charlton Heston, der damals die Hauptrolle spielte. Ihn sieht man in einem kurzen Ausschnitt von MICHELANGELO – INFERNO UND EKSTASE, der in einem TV-Gerät flimmert.

Von der Hölle direkt nach Irland...

...oder Endzeitthriller trifft auf rabenschwarze Krimikomödie – das geht nur im Kino.

HELL (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

Verleih: Paramount

Land/Jahr: Deutschland, Schweiz 2011

Regie: Tim Fehlbaum

Darsteller: Hannah Herzsprung, Lars Eidinger, Stipe Erceg

Kinostart: 22.09.2011

Deutschland im Jahre 2016. Durch die Erderwärmung infolge der Klimakatastrophe herrscht extreme Knappheit an Wasser und Nahrungsmitteln. In ihrem fast komplett vor Sonneneinstrahlung geschützten Auto machen sich Marie und ihr Freund zusammen mit Maries jüngerer Schwester Leonie auf, um in den Bergen nach Wasservorräten zu suchen. Ihr Weg führt sie durch verbrannte, entvölkerte Landschaften, von CD ertönt im krassen Gegensatz dazu Nena mit ihren 99 Luftballons. Niemandem kann man mehr trauen, denn sämtliche gesellschaftliche Strukturen sind im Chaos versunken. An einer verlassenen Tankstelle stößt der zwielichtig erscheinende Tom zu der Truppe. Als sie unfreiwillig Halt machen müssen, weil ein umgefallener Strommast den Weg versperrt, geraten sie in einen Hinterhalt. Unbekannte entführen Tom und Leonie... Dass nicht nur amerikanische Filmemacher imstande sind, Endzeitszenarien zu visualisieren, beweist der deutsche Regisseur Tim Fehlbaum mit seinem Langfilmdebüt. Denn optisch brillant gibt sich seine Vision eines postapokalyptischen Deutschland. Unschwer erkennt man als Filmkenner aber natürlich auch die vielen Vorbilder, die dem Filmhochschulabsolventen hier Pate standen. Wenn Marie schließlich in einem isolierten Bauernhof auf eine ganze Familie von Kannibalen stößt, so löst dies sofort Assoziationen zum TEXAS CHAINSAW MASSACRE aus. Freilich geht es in Fehlbaums Film nicht derartig blutig zur Sache wie bei den gängigen Splatterfilmen, doch die durch die farbgedrehten, ins Sepia tendierenden Bilder erzeugte eigenartig unangenehme Stimmung sowie die ausdruckslosen Blicke der Kannibalen haben Vorbilder. Handlungsmäßig folgt Tim Fehlbaum leider zu sehr diesen Vorbildern, hat er doch keine Überraschungsmomente für Filmkenner parat. Die Handlung läuft hier nach altbekanntem Muster ab. Hin und wieder zieht er dann auch noch ein paar unfreiwillige Lacher auf seine Seite, was für den Spannungsaufbau des Films natürlich kontraproduktiv ist. Nichtsdestotrotz ist es sehr erfreulich, dass sich ein deutscher Regisseur ins Genre-Kino wagt. Bleibt abzuwarten, was sich daraus noch entwickelt.

Film-Blog

THE GUARD – EIN IRE SIEHT SCHWARZ (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

OT: The Guard
Verleih: Ascot Elite (24 Bilder)
Land/Jahr: Großbritannien, Irland 2010
Regie: John Michael McDonagh
Darsteller: Brendan Gleeson, Don Cheadle, Liam Cunningham
Kinostart: 22.09.2011

Seine Schwäche sind billige Nuten und subversiver Humor, mit dem er sich gerne mit Leuten anlegt. Gerry Boyle ist Polizist in einem kleinen Kaff an der Westküste Irlands. Dass ihm jetzt auch noch ein junger Kollege aus Dublin zur Seite gestellt wird, passt ihm ganz und gar nicht – was er den Kollegen auf Schritt und Tritt spüren lässt. Doch es kommt noch schlimmer. Der amerikanische FBI-Agent Wendell Everett kommt ins irische Örtchen, um gemeinsam mit der Polizei einen bevorstehenden millionenschweren Kokaintransport auffliegen zu lassen. Dass dieser Wendell auch noch ein Farbiger ist, geht Boyle zu weit. Fortan überhäuft er den Agenten mit rassistischen Äußerungen. Als jedoch plötzlich der Kollege aus Dublin spurlos verschwindet und auch ein paar andere seltsame Dinge sich ereignen, muss Boyle über seinen Schatten springen und mit dem FBI-Agenten zusammenarbeiten... Eines gleich vorweg: wer das Pech hat, diese rabenschwarze irische Komödie in einer deutschen Synchronisation sehen zu müssen, dem entgeht der halbe Spaß! Es ist einfach zu köstlich, wenn Boyle und sein Kollege sich beim Anblick eines Mordopfers, an dessen Wand mit Blut die Zahl "5 ½" geschrieben steht, in bestem irischem Slang über Filme mit Zahlen im Titel unterhalten und versuchen, Parallelen zu SIEBEN oder 8 ½ herzustellen. Die Konstellation der Protagonisten erinnert ein wenig an IN DER HITZE DER NACHT – ob Zufall oder Absicht spielt dabei keine Rolle. Denn die beiden Darsteller – Brendan Gleeson als der mürrische Boyle und Don Cheadle als der präzise Everett – machen ihre Sache so fabelhaft, dass man einfach nicht anders kann als herzhaft zu lachen. Wenn die beiden dann am Ende des Films im großen Showdown von an Italo-Western erinnernder Musik unterlegt Seite an Seite gegen die dummen Verbrecher kämpfen, dann stellt sich sogar ein bisschen Gänsehaut ein. THE GUARD ist einen Besuch im Kino wert – aber bitte im Original.

Wenn James Bond auf Indiana Jones trifft
Haben die Coens mit TRUE GRIT eine Renaissance des Western eingeleitet? Man könnte es fast meinen...

COWBOYS & ALIENS (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

OT: Cowboys & Aliens
Verleih: Paramount
Land/Jahr: USA 2011
Regie: Jon Favreau
Darsteller: Daniel Craig, Harrison Ford, Olivia Wilde, Sam Rockwell
Kinostart: 25.08.2011

Mitten im Niemandsland von Arizona kommt er wieder zu sich und weiß gar nichts mehr. Weder wie er heisst, noch wo er herkommt. Und er hat ein eigenartiges, metallisches Armband an seinem rechten Arm. Drei Leichen später galoppiert der Fremde in das nahe gelegene Städtchen. Man schreibt das Jahr 1873 und der Fremde bekommt plötzlich einen Namen: Jake Longgrans Konterfei ziert einen Steckbrief, der ihn als Goldräuber deklariert. Jetzt bekommt er es nicht nur mit dem Sheriff zu tun, sondern auch noch mit dem Patriarchen "Colonel" Woodrow Dolarhyde, dessen durchgeknallten Sohn Percy er einer Prügelstrafe für fleghaftes Benehmen unterzog. Gerade als Jake zusammen mit Percy in einer Kutsche zur nächst höheren Instanz gebracht werden soll, taucht Woodrow mit seinen Gefolgsleuten auf und macht Stunk. Doch das brachiale Stelldichein wird jäh unterbrochen, als plötzlich unheimliche Flugobjekte Jagd auf die Versammelten machen und einen nach dem anderen mit Seilen in die Luft ziehen. In ihrer Not müssen die erbitterten Feinde jetzt zwangsläufig zu Verbündeten werden, um es mit den Aliens aufzunehmen... Jon Favreaus Adaptation eines Comic-Buches verknüpft zwei vollkommen unterschiedliche Genres zu einem ganz neuen Genre: dem Sci-Fi-Western! Bis es soweit ist, dass die außerirdische Intelligenz sich ihren Weg auf die Leinwand bahnt, verläuft COWBOYS & ALIENS nach altbekanntem Western-Muster. Hier die Bösen, dort die weniger Bösen und dann auch die richtig Guten. Das aber ist sozusagen nur das Vorspiel zu dem eigentlichen Plot des Films: die Jagd der Cowboys auf die bösen Aliens. Die sind zwar technologisch den Westernhelden um Einiges überlegen, doch wenn richtige Kerle mit edlem Motiv gemeinsam (später sogar mit den Indianern zusammen!) gegen den Feind anrücken, dann hat der kaum Überlebenschancen. Das klingt doch eigentlich nach einem richtig amüsanten und voll trashigen Vergnügen. Doch weit gefehlt. Denn der anarchische Witz, mit dem zumindest ich die ganze Zeit geliebäugelt habe, bleibt aus. So entwickelt sich die Schlacht zu einer fast bitterernsten Angelegenheit. Dabei wäre schon allein durch die Besetzung mit Daniel Craig und Harrison Ford in den Hauptrollen genügend Potenzial für eine Genre-Persiflage vorhanden. Die 123 Minuten Spielzeit fühlen sich leider länger an als sie tatsächlich sind. (Cowboy)Hut ab jedoch vor den grandiosen Bildern, die beispielsweise die zu allem entschlossenen Reiter in prächtiger Landschaft zu epischer Filmmusik (von Harry Gregson-Williams) in den Kampf ziehen lässt. Noch mehr Bilder wie diese und ohne die Aliens hätte das ein schöner Edel-Western werden können.

Scheidungskomödie und Märchenfilm

Zum Abschluss der Pressewoche, die ausnahmsweise schon am Donnerstag zu Ende ging, gab es mal wieder ein Double Feature.

CRAZY, STUPID, LOVE. (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

OT: Crazy, Stupid, Love.
Verleih: Warner
Land/Jahr: USA 2011
Regie: Glenn Ficarra, John Requa
Darsteller: Steve Carell, Julianne Moore, Ryan Gosling
Kinostart: 18.08.2011

Bei Cal und Emily kriselt es gewaltig. Die Eltern zweier minderjähriger Kinder wollen sich scheiden lassen. Anlass ist Emilys Seitensprung mit einem Kollegen. In Wirklichkeit haben sich die beiden natürlich nur etwas auseinandergeliebt und lieben sich nach wie vor innig. Doch Cal zieht erst einmal einen Schlussstrich und zieht aus. Nacht für Nacht verbringt er in Selbstmitleid zerfließend alleine in einer Bar. Das kann Playboy Jacob nicht länger mit ansehen und beschließt, dem Lebensüberdrüssigen Nachhilfestunden in Sachen "Frauen aufreissen" zu geben. Ein neues Outfit gehört ebenso dazu wie ein vollkommen anderes Auftreten. Und da Jacob ein besonders guter Couch ist, hat Cal bald großen Erfolg bei den Mädels. Weniger glücklich sind aber Jessica und Robbie. Sie ist 17 und Babysitterin für Cals Kinder, er ist Cals 13jähriger Sohn. Robbie ist in Jessica verschossen, Jessica in Cal. Ganz zu schweigen von Emily, die durch Cals neues Image mehr denn je in ihn verliebt ist... Gewiss – CRAZY, STUPID, LOVE ist keinesfalls ein ganz außergewöhnlicher Film, den man unbedingt anschauen muss.

Aber – und das muss man dem Film zugute halten – es funktioniert als echtes Date-Movie, das einem hinterher nicht peinlich sein muss. Es gibt hier keine Fäkalorgien oder gar ultra-vulgäre Sprache. Nein, wenn hier über Sex gesprochen wird, dann in einer dem jeweiligen Lebensabschnitt der handelnden Personen angemessenen Art und Weise. Es ist auch kein großes Geheimnis, dass am Ende der Show die zueinander finden, die einfach zusammengehören. Das schließlich macht ein Date-Movie aus. Wer möchte schon mit Tränen der Trauer das Kino verlassen? Ein paar kleine Tränen der Freude sind doch viel schöner! Das Schauspielerensemble liefert perfekt ab, was von ihm verlangt wird. Steve Carell, der abonnierte Loser, mausert sich zum begehrten Playboy. Julianne Moore als seine zukünftige Ex-Frau erstrahlt in voller Schönheit, auch wenn sie schon über 40 ist. Sogar Kevin Bacon brilliert in einer Nebenrolle als Julianne Moores Kollege und eigentlicher Scheidungsgrund – ein echtes Ekelpaket. Und die Chemie zwischen Analeigh Tipton als Babysitterin Jessica und ihrem großen Verehrer Jonah Bobo stimmt einfach. Ein netter Film für Zwischendurch ohne Risiken und Nebenwirkungen. Das ist doch was!

LE HAVRE (1:1.85, DD 5.1)

OT: Le Havre

Verleih: Pandora

Land/Jahr: Finnland, Frankreich, Deutschland 2011

Regie: Aki Kaurismäki

Darsteller: André Wilms, Jean-Pierre

Darroussin, Kati Outinen

Kinostart: 08.09.2011

Marcel Marx, einst Schriftsteller und Bohemian, hat sich in das Armenviertel von Le Havre zurückgezogen. Tagsüber versucht er als Schuhputzer Geld zu verdienen, abends wird er von seiner lieben Frau Arletty bekocht. Eines Tages muss Arletty ins Krankenhaus. Wie ernst es um sie steht, verheimlicht sie ihrem Marcel jedoch. Denn in ihren Augen ist er immer noch ein Kind. Zur gleichen Zeit nimmt sich Marcel des afrikanischen Flüchtlingsjungen Idrissa an, der illegal eingewandert ist und sich im Hafen vor der Polizei versteckt. Marcel beschließt, dem Jungen zu einer Überfahrt nach England zu helfen, wo dessen Mutter auf ihn wartet. Noch einmal läuft Marcel zu Hochform auf und setzt alle Hebel in Bewegung, damit Idrissa das

Land verlassen kann. Das Täuschen der Polizei gehört ebenso dazu wie das Organisieren eines Benefizkonzerts, mit dem die Reise finanziert werden soll. Manch einer dürfte sich nach Ende des Films fragen, ob dieser denn tatsächlich von jenem Filmemacher stammt, der weltweit für seinen grenzenlosen Pessimismus bekannt ist. In der Tat hat Aki Kaurismäki mit LE HAVRE ein schönes, puren Optimismus ausstrahlendes Märchen abgeliefert. Und das in der Form französischer Filme der fünfziger Jahre. Ausstattung, Musik, Farbgebung, ja sogar die Darsteller – alles scheint aus einer längst vergessenen Zeit zu stammen, ist aber aktueller denn je. Kaurismäki nimmt sich einem immer dringenderen Problem an: dem Schicksal von Flüchtlingen, die Hilfe suchend illegal nach Europa kommen. Der ganzen Tragik solcher Schicksale kann man vermutlich nur mit grenzenlosem Optimismus begegnen. Das nur so vor Glück strotzende Ende seines Films dürfte das Wunschdenken des Filmemachers sein. Aber er hat recht. Denn gibt es nur einen Bruchteil der Solidarität, die er im Film zeigt, müsste das Problem keines mehr sein. Ein wunderschöner Feel-Good-Film mit einem fabelhaften Ensemble.

Ein Superheld ohne Superkräfte

Heute gab es einen weiteren kleinen Vorgesmack auf das bevorstehende Fantasy Filmfest.

SUPER (1:1.85, DD 5.1)

Verleih: ohne

Land/Jahr: USA 2010

Regie: James Gunn

Darsteller: Rainn Wilson, Ellen Page, Liv

Tyler, Kevin Bacon

Kinostart: ohne

Im Leben von Frank gibt es genau zwei für ihn prägende Momente: als er seine Frau Sarah kennenlernte und als einmal einem Polizisten sagen konnte, in welche Richtung der Gejagte flüchtete. Alles andere versucht er so gut es geht zu verdrängen: die Prügelstrafen durch den Vater und die Drangsalierungen durch seine Mitschüler. Doch jetzt sieht er sich mit einer ganz neuen Herausforderung konfrontiert. Denn seine Frau wendet sich von ihm ab und verlässt ihn schließlich, um bei dem Drogendealer Jacques unterzutauchen. In einem Wachtraum berührt ihn der Finger Gottes und erwählt ihn – aber zu was? Da fällt es dem Loser schließlich wie Schuppen von den Haaren: Gott hat ihn auserwählt, um fortan in Gestalt des Superhelden "The Crimson Bolt" gegen das Verbrechen einzutreten und seine Frau aus den Klauen des Fieslings Jacques zu befreien. Bald schon steht ihm die quirlige Libby als "Boltie" zur Seite. Gemeinsam wollen die beiden das Böse bekämpfen... Ein Superheld ohne Superkräfte – gibt es das? James Gunns an Comic-Büchern orientierte Komödie liefert den Beweis. Denn es bedarf wirklich nur einer eng anliegenden Uniform und einer mächtigen Rohrzange, um denjenigen fürchterlich zu bestrafen, der sich in der Schlange vor dem Kino einfach vor-drängelt. Natürlich schießt Frank in diesem Falle mit Kanonen auf Spatzen – aber es wirkt. Und Lars von Trier hätte an dieser Szene ganz sicher seinen Spaß gehabt! Leider bleibt SUPER nicht immer so schwarz-humorig lustig wie in dieser Sequenz. An manch anderer Stelle des Films fragt man sich, ob das tatsächlich noch komisch ist. Versöhnlich stimmt allerdings jene vorzüglich montierte Szene, in der Frank und Libby im großen Stil in einem Waffengeschäft auf Einkaufstour gehen. Rainn Wilson und Ellen Page sind die ideale Besetzung für das ungleiche Paar aus depressivem Loser und überdrehter Comic-Verkäuferin. Dass James Gunn mit seinem Film stets die Nähe zu den Comics sucht, zeigt er durch die vielen kleinen Inserts, die seinen Film ab und zu tatsächlich wie Comic-Zeichnungen aussehen lassen. SUPER wird hierzulande während des Fantasy Filmfests zu sehen sein und dürfte vornehmlich die Comic-Fangemeinde ansprechen. Doch auch sich in den Film hinein verirrende Splatter-Enthusiasten werden ein wenig auf ihre Kosten kommen.

Maid Sama: Collection 2

If Misaki Ayuzawa didn't already have enough problems being the first female student council president of the formerly all-male Seika High School AND carrying on a secret double life as a waitress at a local maid café by night, the fact that she may be starting to have feelings for Usui, the first boy to discover her dual life, has pushed her nerves to the breaking point. But fate certainly won't leave it at that, and now she has to deal with a new guy who is not only extremely anti-girl, but a hypnotist as well! Toss in an organized crime cartel that wants to replace the maid café with a butler bistro, some very annoying new transfer students and the inevitable trip to the hot springs and everyone is guaranteed to end up in hot water, one way or the other. It's the climatic conclusion to Japan's most twisted domestic servant saga ever: Maid Sama Collection 2!

MM!: The Complete Collection

*There are twisted tales and twisted tales, but few are as twisted as poor Sado's, who's just realized that he LIKES being made miserable. Of course, knowing that only makes him more miserable, which in turn... Well, you get the idea. Desperate to break the circle, Sado volunteers for a special club where he hopes he can work through his issues; only to discover that the other members have equally... complex... issues to deal with. For example, the hyper-aggressive club president Isurugi not only has a violent fear of cats, but also believes herself to be a god! Then there's Yuno, who's terrified of men; the Nurse, who forces other people to perform cosplay; and Hayama, Sado's best friend and a compulsive cross-dresser, who's also the girl that Sado is infatuated with. (We did say it was complex, remember?) ## Gigola

Eduardo Noriega, Lou Doillon
In the 1960s, bourbon and money flowed freely in the Parisian neighborhood of Pigalle. Here, the city came alive at night behind closed curtains and in the company of mob men, gender-bending performers and prostitutes who made love without boundaries. Then there was Georgia (Lou Doillon) alias Gigola - a temptress who dressed like a refined young man and used her charm and wits to rise to the top of the urban underworld. Still haunted by the suicide of her first mistress, Gigola sparks a string of torrid affairs with enchanted women, like Cora, a young barmaid, or Odette, an old aristocrat who lavishes her with extravagant gifts in exchange for sexual favors. Based on the long censored novel of the same name, Gigola captures a little known chapter in Parisian history in which eroticism defied conventional morals. Delightfully filmed with an old-fashioned sense of

The Guns Of Navarone (Blu-ray)

Gregory Peck, Anthony Quinn, David Niven, Stanley Baker, Irene Pappas, Gia Scala, Anthony Quayle, James Darren
Gregory Peck, Anthony Quinn and David Niven are Allied saboteurs assigned an impossible mission: infiltrate an impregnable Nazi-held island and destroy the two enormous long-range field guns that prevent the rescue of 2,000 trapped British soldiers. Blacklisted screenwriter Carl Foreman (High Noon, The Bridge On The River Kwai) was determined to re-establish both his name and credibility after spending most of the 50's working in anonymity. To accomplish this, he decided to bring Alistair MacLean's best-selling novel, The Guns Of Navarone, to the screen. Supported by an all-star cast and produced on a grand scale, the film was an enormous success, receiving seven 1961 Academy Award nominations (including Best Picture) and winning for Best Special Effects. Although Foreman achieved his goal, it was MacLean who would wind up the true beneficiary; his novels became the source for many high adventure screen epics, including Ice Station Zebra and Where Eagles Dare. However, it is The Guns Of Navarone that remains not only the best of the MacLean adaptations, but one of the greatest action/adventure spectacles

Epsiods: Complete Restored Series

One of television's most influential and beloved comedy programs, The Honeymooners first appeared in 1951 as a series of skits on television's Cavalcade of Stars before comic great Jackie Gleason was given his own program a year later. For decades, these early Honeymooners telecasts were lost until Jackie Gleason began releasing them from his private film vault. Now, in celebration of the 60th anniversary of the very first Honeymooners skits, MPI Home Video and Jackie Gleason Enterprises present the most complete collection possible of these rare gems, many of which have not been seen anywhere in 50 years or available previously on DVD. It's a treasure trove of the hilarious antics of hapless Brooklyn bus driver Ralph Kramden (Jackie Gleason), his long-suffering but loving wife Alice (Audrey Meadows), Ralph's neighbor and pal, sewer worker Ed Norton (Art Carney) and Norton's wife Trixie (Joyce Randolph). ## Iranian Genre Flicks: Going By / The Pastry Girl (2-Pack)

For many „Iranian Film“ conjures up art cinema of Abbas Kiarostami and Mohsen Makhmalbaf, but the country also produces its share of genre flicks with characters and conventions familiar to movie-lovers in any country. This two-pack offers a road movie and a romantic comedy - Iranian style. By turns pleasant and profound, Going By (2001, 86 mins) is a remarkable debut feature for Iraj Karimi, one of Iran's most prominent film critics. On any given day, a variety of travelers take the road from Tehran to northern Iraq. On one particular day, four carloads of people take the main road, each for different reasons. The characters do to know each other, and their final destination differ, but their conversations about life and death have much in common. While staying within the conventions of a road movie, Karimi successfully adds a metaphorical dimension to the daylong journey of the characters. In The Pastry Girl (2002, 105 mins), Saeed has been trying to marry the homely pastry chef Niloo for 20 years, but their rivaling families have used one ploy after another to block the marriage. Just as it appears

Septien

Onur Tükel, Robert Longstreet
Eighteen years after his unexplained departure, Cornelius Rawlings (writer and director Michael Tully) returns to his family's Tennessee farm to find his parents dead, but little else different. His brother Amos (Onur Tükel) works on grotesque expressionist paintings about football, while repressed neat- and Jesus-freak Ezra (Robert Longstreet, The Oregonian) tends to housekeeping religiously. Cornelius, an unlikely athletic savant, hustles high schoolers in town to support his huffing habit. When a toilet overflows and a familiar-looking plumber appears with his very beautiful, very young wife, the mystery of why Cornelius left starts to unravel. Blackly comic, touchingly human, visually striking, genuinely unsettling - this genre-bending, tonally unique film is unlike anything you've ever seen before.

The Arbor

Andrea Dunbar was described as „a genius from the slums.“ The unflinchingly honest playwright wrote about her distressing upbringing on the Arbor, the notorious Buttershaw Estate in Bradford, UK. Where she died tragically in 1990 at the age of 29, Andrea left behind her plays and three children by three different men. Although Lorraine, Andrea's oldest daughter, acquired a knack for writing, she was unable to avoid a grim fate of her own. This documentary follows Lorraine and her other siblings on a powerful journey of reflection and self-discovery as they begin to understand the struggles their mother faced. Comprised of personal letters; interviews with Andrea's family and friends; and a reading of her most celebrated play; The Arbor is as innovative in its construction and execution as it is heartbreakingly compelling.

Armadillo

Armadillo is a raw and unforgettable journey into the war in Afghanistan. Mads and Daniel are Danish troops joining the NATO mission in Helmand Province. Their platoon is stationed in Camp Armadillo, with Taliban fighters a stone's throw away. Filmmaker Janus Metz is deeply embedded with the platoon, documenting first-hand the daily grind of modern warfare, tense waiting followed by intense flurries of bloodshed. During gunfights his camera is right at the front line, recording the mortal dangers the troops face daily. Unable to tell Afghan civilians apart from combatants, the platoon's skepticism of the humanitarian effort grows, as well as their yearning for the black and white morality of battle. Ethical lines are blurred, and a sense of besieged paranoia sets in to their warrior mentality. Armadillo.

The Civil War: 150th Anniversary

Collector's Edition

So prophesied Abraham Lincoln, in a speech given on June 16th, 1858-two years before his election to the Presidency would trigger the collapse of national unity. The cause-a fundamental paradox in the country's architectural plan. ## Conspiracy Theories: Whoever Says The Truth Shall Die / The Unquiet Death Of Julius And Ether Rosenberg (2-Pack)

Two documentaries that offer perspectives on two unrelated but high-profile criminal cases. On June 19, 1953, Julius and Ethel Rosenberg, the so-called „atomic spies“ of the 1950s, were executed at Sing Sing Prison. Their death only fostered the belief of many Americans that the Rosenbergs were innocent, victims of the anti-Communist paranoia of the 50s, rather than spies who had stolen atomic secrets for the Russians. In the landmark documentary The Unquiet Death Of Julius and Ethel Rosenberg (The Rosenberg-Sobell Case Revisited, USA 1974, 83 mins) Alvin Goldstein looks at the facts and procedures of the Rosenberg case, as well as the climate of the times, interview jurors, FBI agents, lawyers for both sides, and the two sons of the Rosenbergs. Using documentary and newsreel footage, Goldstein creates a moving human drama, a thoroughly researched, solidly developed... superb recreation of history, painting with bold strokes the temper of the times“ (Boston Globe). This is joined by Whoever Says The Truth Shall Die (Netherlands, 1981, 60 mins), a remarkable film on Pier Paolo Pasolini, the poet, poet

The Juche Idea

Jim Finn's The Juche Idea is an uproarious and provocative deconstruction of North Korean propaganda and philosophy. Mixing together eye-popping archival footage with deadpan re-enactments, Finn has created a complex docu-fiction that is equally thought-provoking and entertaining. Translated as self-reliance, „Juche“ (CHOO-chay) is a hybrid of Confucian and Stalinist thought that Kim Jong-il adapted from his father and applied to the entire culture. In The Juche Idea, a sympathetic South Korean film-maker visits a North Korean artist's colony to bring Juche ideas into the 21st century. She ends up producing hilariously stilted shorts, including a nonsensical sci-fi story and the enigmatic „Dentures of Imperialism“ inspired by the true story of how a South Korean director was kidnapped in the 70s to invigorate the North's movie industry. The Juche Idea is both sardonic satire and historical excavation, an exuberant collage that reveals the absurdity at the heart of Kim-Jong-il's regime.

For many though, he is implicated in war crimes allegedly committed with his knowledge in countries from Cambodia to Chile. With exclusive access and more than 20 hours of interviews with Kissinger, National Geographic peels away the mystique around the man who, to this day, remains one of the most controversial figures in global politics.*

Landmarks Of Middle English Literature

The Landmarks Of Middle English Literature combines two of the greatest titles dedicated to both the father of English Literature, Geoffrey Chaucer, and one of the country's greatest works, Sir Gawain & The Green Knight. Sir Gawain & The Green Knight. Written in an obscure dialect and undiscovered for centuries, Sir Gawain & The Green Knight has inspired countless adaptations, be they plays, prose, movies or animation. By many scholars it is seen as the equal of Chaucer's own Canterbury Tales. Chaucer & The Canterbury Tales. Born into a world of war and disease, Geoffrey Chaucer would take the role of the soldier, spy, civil servant, courtier and prisoner. Despite and perhaps because of this, he would lead a golden age of English Literature.

The People Vs George Lucas

They gave him their love, their money and their online parodies. He gave them...the prequels. The passion the original Star Wars trilogy inspires in its fans is unparalleled; but when it comes to George Lucas himself, many have found their ardor has cooled into a complicated love-hate relationship. This hilarious, heartfelt documentary delves deep into Lucas's cultural legacy. Utilizing interviews taken from over 600 hours of footage, and peppered with extraordinary Star Wars and Indiana Jones re-creations lovingly immortalized in song, needlepoint, Lego, claymation, puppets and papier-mâché, above all this film asks the question: who truly owns that galaxy far, far away-the man who created it, or the fans who worship it?

The Red Chapel

Combining the muckraking spirit of Michael Moore with the confrontational comedy of Borat, The Red Chapel is a one-of-a-kind documentary that reveals the injustices of North Korea with a hilariously dark wit. In this Sundance Grand Jury Prize-winning film, a trio of Danish comedians, who call themselves „The Red Chapel“ pretend to be regime sympathizers and mount an absurd variety show in Pyongyang. This stunt is led by the acerbic director Mads Brügger and assisted by Simon Jul and Jacob Nossell, two performers of South Korean descent. Constantly shadowed by their guide, Mrs. Pak, they fake allegiance to Kim Jong-il and hope for „One Korea.“. Only Jacob is allowed to speak his mind. Suffering from cerebral palsy, his halting speech is impossible to translate, so he insults his socialist hosts and receives smiles in return. The Red Chapel is an unconventional, hilarious and damning peek into a totalitarian nightmare.

Rent Boys

Since the 1960s, West Berlin's most important transportation center - Bahnhof Zoo train station - served a second, lesser-known function as a meeting place for hordes of male prostitutes from all over Eastern Europe. Now, filmmaker Rosa von Praunheim profiles the personal and historic impact of the hustler culture that emerged at Bahnhof Zoo by turning his lens on five grown men who spent their youths as rent boys at the station. Each of the subjects' stories reveals the expected obstacles - abuse, drug addiction and poverty - but the men also display a surprising tenderness and determination to move on. At the same time, each man must cope with the emotional and physical consequences of their past decisions. Rent Boys is a frank and sympathetic chronicle of the historic causes and lasting effects of Berlin's hustler trade. By capturing a broad array of voices - from former rent boys and clients, to the counselors and public servants who offer them treatment - von Praunheim creates an engrossing historic survey from the intimate stories of those whose lives intersected at Bahnhof Zoo.

Rubens: Passion, Faith, Sensuality And The Art Of The Baroque

His legacy consists of over two thousand pictures - an imposing and contradictory life's work, with which Rubens, the disciplined artist and diplomat, educated in the humanist tradition, transposed the achievements of Renaissance painting into the Baroque age and built a bridge between north and south, between Italian and Flemish art. The film interprets the great altar paintings, the portraits and self portraits and the famous mythological and historical portrayals: in his mythological pictures Rubens incorporated his experiences of human passions and the dynamics of nature. In the Medici cycle for the Queen of France the painter's baroque feeling for life is expressed with the greatest clarity: political activity appears as theatrum mundi, as a portrayal of a sensibly ordered world. Life can succeed, evil can be overcome: this is Rubens' message which he expressed in his art.

Up From Slavery

In 1860, as the American Experiment threatened to explode into a bloody civil war, there were as many as four hundred thousand slave-owners in the United States, and almost four million slaves. The nation was founded upon the idea that all men are created equal and endowed by their creator with the inalienable rights of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. The nation would pay a bloody cost for denying that right to more than twelve percent of its population. But when slavery was first brought to America's shores, this war, and even the nation it tore apart, was centuries in the future. With incredibly detailed historical reenactments, expert commentary and the stories of slavery told through first-hand accounts, this is an epic struggle 400 years in the making. A journey into the past like none other. This is the story of these men and women who by their hands laid the foundation of what would become the most powerful nation on Earth. ## Wimbledon: Men's & Women's Finals 2011

Novak Djokovic, Rafael Nadal
Novak Djokovic underlined his new status as the world's top tennis player in 2011 by shattering Rafael Nadal's winning streak at Wimbledon to add his own name to the roll of honor at The Championships for the first time. The 24-year-old Serb, with his country's president watching from the Royal Box, won 6-4, 6-1, 1-6, 6-3 in two hours 28 minutes to continue his domination of the 2011 season - and Nadal in particular - throughout this most amazing season in his career. Five times in succession he has now defeated the Spaniard in finals, but none were as important or will taste as sweet as this. Tipped to create an upset at the 2011 Championships, few saw Petra Kvitova winning 6-3, 6-4 in one hour 25 minutes. Although Maria Sharapova's play fell well below her best levels, it was in no small part due to the big-hitting torrent directed at her by the 21-year-old whose first, but surely not last, Grand Slam victory this was.

Yes Sir!: Jack Nicklaus And The Historic 1986 Masters Victory

Tom Watson, Brent Musburger, Tiger Woods, Jim Nantz, Rick Reilly
The 1986 Masters Tournament at Augusta National was the last of Jack Nicklaus' record 18 majors. At the age of 46, it was arguably the most improbable of those titles and certainly one of the most compelling dramas in the history of sport. Through exclusive interviews, personal reflections, and captivating footage, Yes Sir! Jack Nicklaus And The Historic 1986 Masters Victory celebrates the many layers of this thrilling, come-from-behind triumph and this where-were-you moment in history. For parts of three decades, „The Golden Bear“ dominated golf, winning more major championships than anyone in that era or any era before him. But, without a major championship trophy to place on the mantle since 1980, the 46-year-old seemed a distant shot to win another green jacket. However, with his son, Jack II, as his caddy, this father-son Sunday stroll turned into a breathtaking edge-of-your-seat final round capped by a back-nine 30 that allowed Jack Nicklaus to claim his sixth Masters title and provide the exclamation point on his legacy as golf's greatest champion. Yes Sir!
