Hallo Laserdisc- und DVD-Fans, liebe Filmfreunde!

Es hat ja inzwischen fast schon so etwas wie Tradition, dass wir mit unserem Sommerurlaub genau dann beginnen, wenn alle anderen gerade aus dem Urlaub zurückkehren. Dahinter steckt natürlich keine böse Absicht, sondern ein klares Kalkül. Und dieses Kalkül nennt sich "Fantasy Filmfest". Für uns stets ein willkommener Anlass, einmal eine Auszeit von der "Laser Hotline" zu nehmen und uns voll und ganz dem blutigen Alltag zu widmen. Denn ohne Blut geht ja bei einem Festival, in dessen Mittelpunkt Horror, Thriller und SciFi steht, gar nichts. Anders als in den Vorjahren dauert das filmische Gemetzel dieses Mal ganze 12 Tage lang, also vier Tage länger als gewöhnlich. Grund dafür ist die Tatsache, dass nur ein einziger Kinosaal bespielt wird, es also keine zwei Filme parallel gibt. Und da sich an der Zahl der Filme nichts geändert hat, geht die ganze Veranstaltung in eine zeitliche Verlängerung. Das wird auch für harte Kinoextremisten wie uns eine Herausforderung. Aber wie heisst es so schön: No Risk, No Fun! In diesem Sinne verabschieden wir uns daher vom 04.09. bis 21.09. aus unserem Büro und werden (hoffentlich) ab dem 22. September wieder frisch und munter für Sie da sein.

Lassen Sie uns aber vorher noch kurz einen Ausblick auf "Coming Attractions" geben. Wie die Bilder auf dieser Seite bereits verraten, gibt es demnächst zwei neue Premieren-Videos in unserem Youtube-Kanal. Also: stay tuned! Ab Seite 12 in diesem Newsletter präsentieren wir dann das Programm des "10. Todd-AO 70mm Filmfestivals" der Karlsruher Schauburg, das dort vom 03. bis 05.10.2014 über die gekrümmte Cinerama-Bildwand laufen wird. Und last but not least spricht unsere Kolumnistin Anna auf den beiden folgenden Seiten wieder mit Hollywood. Uns hier in der Redaktion hat ihre neueste Kolumne tief berührt und Anna verriet uns, dass sie selbst Rotz und Wasser geheult hat, als sie diese Zeilen verfasste. Bravo, tapferes Mädchen!

„It's going to be alright in the end. And if it's not alright, it's not the end.“

Am 22. Juli dieses Jahres ist mein Vater Jochen verstorben. Ohne ihn zu sein fällt mir schwer, doch ohne ihn diese Kolumne zu schreiben fühlt sich gänzlich wider der Natur an. Wieso? Weil diese Kolumnistin nur deshalb mit Hollywood spricht, weil sie einen Vater hatte, der ihr die Liebe zum Film schon in die Wiege gelegt hat.

Als Baby und Kleinkind war ich viel von Filmmusik umgeben. Beim Frühstück ging mein Vater oft zum Schallplattenspieler, suchte aus seiner Sammlung etwas aus und dann ertönten Kompositionen von Lalo Schifrin, Jerry Goldsmith, Maurice Jarre und vielen mehr. Ich liebte diese Stücke, die Geschichten erzählten.

Mit etwa fünf Jahren offenbarte sich mir, dass diese Noten zu Bildern gehörten. Filmbildern. Ich durfte zum ersten Mal Star Wars sehen und Superman. Nach und nach kamen immer mehr hinzu und dann natürlich auch die Disneyfilme, deren Melodien ich schnell auswendig konnte und lauthals mitsang. Auch die Bondfilme animierten mich oft zum Mitsingen – besonders angetan hatten es mir die Titellieder von Goldfinger und The Man with the Golden Gun. Als Erwachsene habe ich erst gemerkt, wie anders als die der meisten Kinder meine filmische Sozialisierung ablief. Fernsehen war bei uns zwar nicht verboten, aber wahlloses Fernsehen war absolut tabu. Samstagmorgencartoons, Soaps oder Zappen gab es bei uns nicht. Dafür durfte ich jeden Dienstag am späten Nachmittag Star Trek: The Next Generation gucken, welches mein Vater und ich liebevoll “Raumschiff Entenscheiß” nannten, was mich immer zum Kichern brachte. Mit acht traten dann Mulder und Scully von den X-Files in unser Leben und Papa ließ es mich sehen. Während der ersten Staffeln musste er mir manchmal noch die Hand vor die Augen halten, wenn ich mich allzu sehr erschrak. Dann saß ich dicht an ihn gekuschelt und ein furchterregender Moment wurde zu etwas Gutem. Jahre später brauchte ich die schützende Hand nicht mehr, aber als die Lone Gunmen starben lag ich meinem Vater trotzdem wieder, diesmal schluchzend, in den Armen. Filme waren bei uns nie verboten. Meine Eltern gingen beide mit mir ins Kino, gerade bei Disney sogar zweimal, denn ich bestand darauf, die Filme auf Deutsch und Englisch zu sehen. Zuhause eröffnete sich mir schon als kleines Mädchen die Welt von Bond und viele Filme, für die ich zu jung war im Kino, durfte ich bei uns später auf VHS sehen. Mein Vater wusste, was sein Mädchen aushalten konnte, und scherte sich wenig um Altersbegrenzungen. Als ich 13 war, ging ich mit ihm in meinen ersten Film ab 18. Blade. Überhaupt, das “mit ihm Gehen”. Mit keinem anderen Menschen bin ich so häufig ins Kino gegangen wie mit ihm. Wir waren ein seltsames Duo, aber wir liebten diese Zweisamkeit. Ins Kino ging ich immer schon entweder mit meinem Vater oder allein. Noch heute ist es für mich eine Ausnahmesituation, wenn ich mit jemandem anderes in die Geheiligten Kinematographischen Hallen trete. Als ich 15 war, stoß mein Vater die Tür zu einer weiteren filmischen Dimension auf: der des 70mm. Zum ersten Mal in meinem Leben reiste ich nach England und wir fanden uns in Bradford wieder, in einem renovierenden Hilton, wo wir zum Frühstück Ken Annakin trafen und auf dem Weg ins Filmmuseum mit John Belton plauderten. Noch ein zweites Mal schafften wir es dort hin, danach kamen die Umbrüche in meinem Leben und die Krankheit meines Vaters immer wieder dazwischen. Aber zu dem Zeitpunkt gab es, Filmgott sei Dank, das Karlsruher Festival in der Schauburg und auch das tschechische Krnov. Im 70mm-Kino durchlebte mein Vater die wenigen wirklich glücklichen Momente seiner Jugend wieder. Als er am Wochenende allein von Ingolstadt mit dem Zug nach München fuhr, um dort ins Royal zu gehen. Als er

Filmprogrammhefte sammelte, selber auf Super-8 drehte und später sogar Drehbücher schrieb. Sein großes Wissen gab er immer großzügig weiter. Er erklärte mir New Hollywood, das anamorphotische Verfahren und die Geschichte des Westerns. Dank ihm las ich Filmtheoriebücher, ging in offene Seminare der Filmhochschule München und belegte während des Journalismusstudiums Filmkurse. Der Sprung zum Kritiken- und Kolumnenschreiben war dann letztendlich nur noch ein kleiner. Wichtig war er dennoch, denn in meinen Schriften über Film lebt mein Vater weiter. Der letzte Film, den wir zusammen sahen, war The Grand Budapest Hotel. Als mein Vater schließlich auf der Palliativstation lag und wir uns verabschiedeten, machte er noch Witze, welch ein Glück wir gehabt hatten, das unser letzter Film ein so wunderbarer gewesen war.

Auf der Trauerfeier las ich zwei Gedichte vor, die ich und er durch Filme kennen und lieben gelernt hatten und musste ständig an unser letztes Gespräch über Film denken.

Ich sagte: "Wir haben viele gute Filme zusammen gesehen." Und er antwortete: "Ja mein Mäuschen, das haben wir."

Von Affen und Menschen

Der letzte Poesstetog der Woche präsentierte ein sehr interessantes Doppelprogramm.

PLANET DER AFFEN: REVOLUTION

(1:1.85, 3D, DD 5.1 + 7.1 + Atmos)

OT: Dawn Of The Planet Of The Apes

Verleih: Fox

Land/Jahr: USA 2014

Regie: Matt Reeves

Darsteller: Andy Serkis, Jason Clarke,

Gary Oldman

Kinostart: 07.08.2014

Zehn Jahre sind vergangen, seit die Menschheit von einem tödlichen Virus fast komplett dezimiert wurde. Die Affen unter Führung von Caesar, dem ehemaligen Versuchstier, haben sich im Wald ihr eigenes Reich aufgebaut. Derweil versuchen die letzten Überlebenden der Menschheit, ein Kraftwerk in Gang zu setzen, um wieder Energie gewinnen zu können. Da das Kraftwerk jedoch im Gebiet der Affen liegt, kommt es zu einer Konfrontation. Während Caesar nicht abgeneigt ist, mit den Menschen zu kooperieren, hat sein Artgenosse Koba ganz andere Pläne... Dass amerikanisches Blockbuster-Kino nicht immer nur bunt und laut und langweilig sein muss, beweist Regisseur Matt Reeves mit der Fortsetzung zu PLANET DER AFFEN: PREVOLUTION, der 2011 in die Kinos kam. Sein Film ist konsequent spannend inszeniert und fesselt trotz seiner Länge von über zwei Stunden über die gesamte Laufzeit. Großen Anteil daran haben die sehr überzeugenden Affen – ein Paradebeispiel dafür, wie weit die Motion Capture Technologie inzwischen entwickelt ist. Abzulesen immer wieder an der genialen Mimik der Menschenaffen, die perfekt suggeriert, dass man hier mit echten Affen gedreht haben könnte. Diese visuellen Effekte demonstrieren gleichzeitig hervorragend, dass es wesentlich effektvoller ist, sie sehr subtil einzusetzen und nicht in den Fokus zu rücken wie es in Filmen wie TRANSFORMERS gehandhabt wird. Erwähnenswert im neuen AFFEN-Film ist auch die Filmmusik von Michael Giacchino, der mit großem Or-chester und Chor zu Werke geht und den Film dadurch bereichert. Die exzellente Tonmischung sorgt bestens dafür, dass man sich im Kinosaal mehr als nur einmal von Affen umzingelt fühlt. Erklärtes Ziel der Filmemacher ist es, mit dem Ende ihres nächsten Films direkt an den Anfang der Verfilmung aus dem Jahre 1968 anzuknüpfen. Es bleibt spannend. Fazit: PLANET DER AFFEN: PREVOLUTION ist Blockbusterkino, das prächtig unterhält.

MAPS TO THE STARS (1:1.85, DD 5.1)
OT: Maps To The Stars
Verleih: MFA (Filmagentinnen)
Land/Jahr: Kanada, USA, Deutschland, Frankreich 2014
Regie: David Cronenberg
Darsteller: Julianne Moore, Robert Pattinson, Mia Wasikowska
Kinostart: 11.09.2014

Eine von Kindheitstraumata geplagte Schauspielerin, die unbedingt ihre eigene Mutter im Film verkörpern möchte. Ein arroganter Kinderstar auf Entzug. Eine junge Frau, die nicht nur durch Verbrennungen entstellt ist, sondern auch noch ein Geheimnis hütet. Nur drei der Figuren, die in der Traumfabrik Hollywood aufeinandertreffen und ins Verderben rennen... Es ist be-zeichnend, dass der Kanadier David Cronenberg den ersten Film, der er auf amerikanischem Boden drehte, gleich zur Generalabrechnung mit Hollywood nutzt. In seinem Hollywood-Universum gibt es keinen einzigen normalen Menschen. Alles dreht sich nur darum, wer hier wen f* oder wie man am schnellsten an seine Drogen kommt. Und genau die werden in rauen Mengen benötigt, um die eigenen Psychosen zu überwinden – nur um damit andere Psychosen zu entwickeln! Cronenbergs Protagonisten (sensationell gut: Julianne Moore) nehmen kein Blatt vor den Mund (was dem Film sicherlich Probleme in Amerika machen wird) – hier geht es verbal ohne Tabus zur Sache. Cronenberg findet mit diesem Film endlich wieder zu seiner gewohnten Form zurück. Sein Film ist unangenehm und hält den Finger stets in die offene Wunde. So muss Kino sein, das auch nach dem Ende des Films noch nachwirkt. Anschauen!

Erfreulicher Auftakt für die neue Pressewoche

Als ein rätselhafter Flüchtling in Hamburg untertauchen will, schlagen bei Geheimdienstler Günter Bachmann die Alarmglocken. Könnte es sich bei dem Tschetschenen Issa Karpov um einen islamistischen Terroristen handeln? Eine idealistische Anwältin sowie ein undurchsichtiger Bankier sind weitere Figuren in einem Netz, in das Bachmann liebend gerne Dr. Faisal Abdullah locken möchte, jenen Mann, der wohl-tätige Gelder angeblich für terroristische Ziele einsetzt. Doch auch die CIA hat Interesse an Karpov... Mit A MOST

WANTED MAN wurde ein weiterer Spionage-Roman von Altmeister John Le Carre verfilmt. Wer seine Romane und auch die dazugehörigen Verfilmungen kennt, der weiß längst, dass diese Geschichten ohne Action auskommen. Denn nichts kann spannender sein als Geheimdienste bei ihrer tagtäglichen Arbeit über die Schulter zu schauen. Regisseur Anton Corbijn bleibt diesem Konzept treu. Minutiös und detailverliebt schildert er, wie der deutsche Geheimdienst versucht, nicht nur den kleinen Fisch zu fangen, sondern insbesondere dadurch an die großen Fische heranzukommen. Ein Unterfangen, das recht kompliziert ist, zumal auch andere internationale Player mitmischen wollen. Corbijn inszeniert seinen Film konsequent spannend. Was zunächst gemächlich und etwas unüberschaubar beginnt, steigert sich kontinuierlich, bis sich die verschiedenen Puzzleteile zu einem großen Ganzen zusammenfügen. Der vor wenigen Monaten verstorbene Philip Seymour Hoffman gibt hier seine Abschiedsvorstellung – als Geheimdienstler, der raucht, Kaffee trinkt und am Whiskey nippelt, oft schwer atmend. A MOST WANTED MAN empfiehlt sich für anspruchsvolle Thriller-Fans. Allerdings – und das ist die Ausnahme von der Regel! – sollte man sich den Film in der Deutsch synchronisierten Version anschauen. Denn es macht einfach keinen Sinn, dass deutsche Charaktere von amerikanischen Schauspielern gespielt werden, die ausnahmslos in Englisch kommunizieren – auch untereinander.

He Zwerge, Ho!

“Zwerg”fellerschütterndes wurde uns heute kredenzt

DER 7BTE ZWERG (1:1.85, 3D, DD 5.1)

Verleih: Universal

Land/Jahr: Deutschland 2014

Regie: Boris Aljinovic, Michael Coldewey, Harald Siepermann

Kinostart: 25.09.2014

Nachdem die böse Eishexe den gesamten Königspalast in Tiefschlaf versetzt hat, liegt es einzig an den sieben Zwergen, den Liebsten der Prinzessin aus dem Kerker der Hexe zu befreien, um dadurch das Böse zu überkommen. Ob das den kleinen Freaks tatsächlich gelingen wird, steht in den Sternen. Denn die Heldenschar nimmt statt dem unsichtbar machenden Mittel und auch statt dem unbesiegtbar machenden Mittel nur eine Dose Bohnerwachs mit auf die Reise. Und die führt sie direkt in die Höhle eines Drachen... Mit strammem Schritt und einem Liedchen auf den Lippen marschieren die sieben Zwerge durch die Lande, um Jack zu befreien, der der Prinzessin den erlösenden Kuss der wahren Liebe verabreichen kann. Animiert wurden die Zipfelmützenträger dabei nach ihren Synchronsprechern. So hat Zwerg Bubi beispielsweise etwas von Ottos unschuldigem Grinsen im Gesicht und Speedy etwas von “Maddin” Schneiders Langsamkeit. In dem computeranimierten 3D-Film treten aber nicht nur Schneewittchens sieben Zwerge auf, sondern viele weitere Märchengestalten, z.B. Rotkäppchen und der Wolf, die sich als TV-Moderatoren hinter einer TV-Attrappe versuchen – was dem behaarten Wolf natürlich schwer fällt, weil er doch großen Appetit auf die junge Dame hat! An solchen Stellen bricht sich dann immer wieder Anarchohumor seine Bahn und man wünscht sich, dass dies wesentlich öfters passieren würde. So aber bleibt das an den Live-Action-Filmen mit Otto Waalkes angelehnte Märchen meist in geregelten Bahnen, was vermutlich einem vorwiegend ganz jungen Publikum geschuldet ist. Auf der Tonebene erklingt der Animationsspaß recht imposant und zieht alle Register des 5.1-Sound-Layouts. Damit könnte das Knurren und Fauchen des Drachen ganz kleinen Zuschauern durchaus etwas Angst machen. Aber keine Sorge: Rettung naht!

Wenn das Leben die Kunst imitiert

Der heutige Vormittag hielt eine sinnlich-schöne Begegnung für mich bereit...

GEMMA BOVERY (1:2.35, DD 5.1)

OT: Gemma Boveri

Verleih: Prokino (Fox)

Land/Jahr: Frankreich 2014

Regie: Anne Fontaine

Darsteller: Gemma Arterton, Fabrice Luchini, Jason Flemyng

Kinostart: 18.09.2014

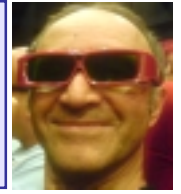

Die blühende Fantasie und seine Leidenschaft für große Literatur sind das Einzige, was Martin von seiner Zeit als Bohemian geblieben sind. Jetzt verdingt sich der Familienvater als Bäcker in einem kleinen Dorf in der Normandie. Alles ändert sich jedoch, als ein englisches Ehepaar das Haus gegenüber seinem Wohnhaus kauft. Nicht nur ihre Namen – Gemma und Charles Bovary –, auch alles andere, was die beiden machen, erinnert ihn sofort an Flauberts großes Werk “Madame Bovary”. Gemma wird für Martin zur Obsession, in der er bald nur noch Flauberts Romanheldin sieht, die er vor ihrem Schicksal bewahren möchte. Doch Gemma ist alles andere als eine Madame Bovary... Christophe Beaucarnes Kameraarbeit schafft von Anfang an die perfekte Stimmung für Anne Fontaines Filmadaptation nach Posy Simmonds Graphic Novel (die wiederum inspiriert wurde von Flauberts “Madame Bovary”): das weiche Licht, mit etwas Schmelz versetzt, suggeriert viel Sinnlichkeit! Verstärkt wird diese Sinnlichkeit durch Gemma Arterton, die in der Rolle der Gemma Boverly herrlich leichte Sommerkleider zur Schau stellen darf. Das ist sehr sexy, aber nie vulgär. Und entspricht damit dem Geiste nach Flauberts Romanheldin Madame Bovary. Das Leben imitiert die Kunst, stellt Bäcker Martin im Film einmal fest. Und er tut wirklich alles dafür, dass es auch so kommt – jedoch ohne es jemals zu wollen. “Self-fulfilling Prophecy” würde man wohl auf Neudeutsch dazu sagen. Gespielt wird Martin von dem großartigen Fabrice Luchini, der die Rolle des in Wallung kommenden Bäckermeisters wie kaum ein anderer zu spielen vermag. Wenn er eines Tages Gemma in seiner Backstube den Brotteig kneten lässt und er dabei nur starr zusehen darf, so spürt man förmlich sein Verlangen nach dieser sinnlich-schönen Engländerin. Anne Fontaine ist eine melancholische Komödie gelungen, die dank der beiden großartigen Hauptdarsteller “funktioniert”.

Nach dem Krieg ist vor dem Krieg

Ein ungewöhnlicher Dokumentarfilm und ein Drama aus Stuttgart hielten mich heute auf Trab

IM KRIEG (1:1.85, 3D, 5.1)

Verleih: Neue Visionen

Land/Jahr: Deutschland 2014

Regie: Nikolai Vialkowitsch

Kinostart: 25.09.2014

Es ist ein Irrglaube zu meinen, dass es 3D erst seit der Digitaltechnik gibt. Einige wissen immerhin, dass es 3D-Filme bereits in den 1950er-Jahren gegeben hat. Fast niemand weiß jedoch, dass es stereoskopische Bilder bereits seit 1840 gibt. Und das in Hülle und Fülle! Jetzt hat sich Regisseur Nikolai Vialkowitsch daran gemacht, stereoskopische Fotografien aus der Zeit des Ersten Weltkriegs auszugraben und diese als Basis für einen Dokumentarfilm zu machen. Anhand der alten Aufnahmen, die um Filmfragmente aus jener Zeit sowie neuzeitlichen 3D-Aufnahmen der Kriegsschauplätze ergänzt wurden, sollte sowohl der Beginn des großen Krieges als auch das ungeheure Ausmaß der Schlachten mit all dem Elend, das sie brachten, dokumentiert werden. Die teilweise fesselnden Bilder, geschickt durch Kamerabewegung zum Leben erweckt, werden mit aus dem Off gesprochenen Texten unterlegt. Bei diesen Texten handelt es sich sowohl um Briefe einfacher Soldaten von der Front in die Heimat als auch um literarische Texte von Zeitzeugen wie Stefan Zweig. Die Kombination aus den Bildern, Texten und der darunter liegenden groß angelegten sinfonischen Musik von Henrik Albrecht lassen den Film zu einem ergreifenden Aufschrei gegen Krieg werden. Und macht an seinem Ende, der gleichzeitig das Ende des Ersten Weltkriegs ist, klar: nach dem Krieg ist vor dem Krieg.

OHNE DICH (1:2.35, 5.1)

Verleih: Camino

Land/Jahr: Deutschland 2014

Regie: Alexandre Powelz

Darsteller: Katja Riemann, Charly

Hübner, Helen Woigk

Kinostart: 04.09.2014

Drei Geschichten, drei Schicksale. Hebamme Rose hat Krebs und wird bald sterben. Ihr Mann Marcel kann sich nicht vorstellen, ohne sie zu sein. Putzfrau Layla kann ihren Ex-Geliebten nicht vergessen und stellt ihm nach. Die junge Kellnerin Motte, ohne festes Zuhause, wird schwanger, ihr Freund ist schwul. Alle drei Storys sind miteinander verflochten und die Liebe steht immer im Mittelpunkt... Eine schwere Geburt – im wahrsten Sinne des Wortes passt dies zum Film selbst. Die Verflechtungen der Protagonisten untereinander an sich wirkt schon ziemlich konstruiert. Ebenso konstruiert wirken aber auch deren Probleme! Und ob das alles nicht schon genug wäre, wird auf ziemlich nervige Art und Weise die Location Stuttgart ins Bild gerückt, so als gelte es, eine neue Tourismusattraktion zu schaffen. So etwas wirkt leider extrem peinlich. Wer künstliches, depressives Kino mag – bitte sehr, hier ist Euer Film.

Griechische Mythologie trifft auf moderne Malerei

Die letzten zwei Filme der Woche waren recht unterschiedlicher Natur

HERCULES (1:2.35, 3D, DD 5.1 + 7.1 + Atmos)

OT: Hercules

Verleih: Paramount

Land/Jahr: USA 2014

Regie: Brett Ratner

Darsteller: Dwayne Johnson, Ian

McShane, Rufus Sewell, John Hurt

Kinostart: 04.09.2014

Hercules und seine treuen Freunde werden von König Cotys zu Hilfe gerufen, um ihm im Kampf gegen den teuflischen Centaur Rhesus zu helfen. Doch Cotys spielt ein doppeltes Spiel... Eines gleich vorweg: wer aufgrund des Trailers in diesen Film geht, der wird herb enttäuscht werden. Denn die 12 Aufgaben, die Hercules erfüllen muss, und die den Trailer bilden, werden bereits in den ersten fünf Minuten des Films abgearbeitet. Was danach folgt ist ein Schlachtenfilm, der versucht, in die Fußstapfen eines 300 zu treten. Zwar gibt es hin und wieder ganz kurze, witzige Einlagen, doch können die nicht über die Langeweile hinwegtäuschen, mit der dieses Epos zu unterhalten versucht. Kaum hat man das Kino verlassen, weiß man schon nichts mehr von diesem Trivialfilm, für den Ungarn als Griechenland aus Kostengründen erhalten musste. Wer einer Enttäuschung entgehen möchte, der meide diesen Film.

SHIRLEY – VISIONEN DER REALITÄT (1:1.85, 5.1)

OT: Shirley – Visions Of Reality

Verleih: Rendezvous

Land/Jahr: Österreich 2013

Regie: Gustav Deutsch

Darsteller: Stephanie Cumming, Christoph Bach, Florentin Groll

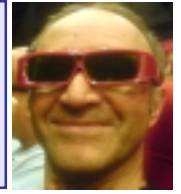

Kinostart: 18.09.2014

Der Untertitel macht gleich zu Beginn klar, um was es in Gustav Deutschs Film geht: “Der Maler Edward Hopper in 13 Bildern”. So erweckt Deutsch 13 Bilder Hoppers, die zwischen 1931 und 1963 entstanden, zum Leben und verknüpft diese durch die Hauptfigur Shirley zu einer Geschichte. Dieses filmische Experiment beeindruckt vor allem durch seine Bilder, die oftmals nicht von einem Gemälde zu unterscheiden sind. Der Regisseur war dabei Drehbuchautor, Szenenbildner und Schnittmeister in Personalunion. Unterlegt werden die einzelnen (Bewegt)Bilder teilweise mit Musik sowie Toncollagen. Rundfunkmeldungen aus dem Off bilden die Übergänge zwischen den Szenen. Gustav Deutschs Film ist ein entschleunigter Film, der sich zeitgenössischem Filmemachen komplett entzieht und dadurch vermutlich nur einem Nischenpublikum erschließen wird. Leider verzichtet der Film darauf, Hoppers Bilder zu zeigen. Nicht einmal am Ende des Films, im Abspann, werden die Gemälde gezeigt. Somit eignet sich der Film eigentlich nur für Zuschauer, die mit dem Werk des Künstlers bereits vertraut sind.

Wolfram Hannemanns

Wenn Hormone Amok laufen

Bin ich zu alt für solche Filme? Ich fürchte ja...

DOKTORSPIELE (1:2.35, 5.1)

Verleih: Fox

Land/Jahr: Deutschland 2014

Regie: Marco Petry

Darsteller: Merlin Rose, Lisa Vicari,

Max von der Groeben

Kinostart: 28.08.2014

Als Kinder haben sie zusammen Doktor gespielt: der schüchterne Andi und die süße Lilli. Eine traumatische Erfahrung für Andi, glaubt er doch seither, dass sein "Ding" viel zu klein ist. Zehn Jahre sind vergangen, es sind Ferien und Andi ist in Katja verliebt. Die aber hat nur Augen für Bobby, der alle Mädels anbaggert. Als Lilli zu Besuch kommt, werden die Karten allerdings neu gemischt... Pubertierende Jungs haben es heute verdammt schwer. Denn die Mädels haben einfach zu große Erwartungen an das erste Mal. Und das wortwörtlich. Denn in den übers Netz frei zugänglichen Pornofilmen geht es ja meist um Quantität und weit weniger um Qualität. Da wundert es nicht, dass die jungen Männer ziemlich verunsichert werden, wenn es um das "Eine" geht. Das ist die Grundlage der Komödie, mit der Regisseur Marco Petry gleichzeitig etwas Zeitgeist in den Kinosaal versprüht. Und damit das alles auch ganz sicher ein Kassenschlager wird (beim Zielpublikum wenigstens), suhlt sich der Film in allerlei Anzüglichkeiten, die man eigentlich schon nicht mehr als solche bezeichnen kann, da diese viel zu direkt sind. Will heißen: es wird nicht mehr um den heißen Brei geredet, sondern man kommt (im doppelten Sinne!) gleich zur Sache. Was für Teens damit vielleicht noch lustig ist, ist für alte Säcke wie den hier schreibenden Rezensenten eigentlich nur noch langweilig. Langweilig deshalb, weil das Drehbuch tatsächlich – so scheint es zumindest – nach dem großen Masterplan vorgeht und auch brav jeden Punkt abarbeitet, den es abzuarbeiten gibt. Originell ist so etwas nicht. Leider. Und damit niemand auf die Idee käme, dass hier Langeweile und platte Pointen vorherrschen, wird das gesamte Werk in einen musikalischen Klangteppich gepackt, der sich vermutlich gut verkaufen lässt. Aber was schreibe ich hier – schließlich möchte ich die jungen Leute nicht davon abhalten, ins Kino zu gehen. Also: tut es, solange es noch Kinos gibt!

Boys will be Boys

Meine letzte Pressevorführung in dieser Woche gestaltete sich recht actionreich

THE EXPENDABLES 3 (1:2.35, DD 5.1

+ 7.1 + Atmos)

OT: The Expendables 3

Verleih: Splendid (Fox)

Land/Jahr: USA 2014

Regie: Patrick Hughes

Darsteller: Sylvester Stallone, Jason Statham, Antonio Banderas, Jet Li, Wesley Snipes, Dolph Lundgren, Kelsey Grammer, Randy Couture, Terry Crews, Mel Gibson, Harrison Ford, Arnold Schwarzenegger

Kinostart: 21.08.2014

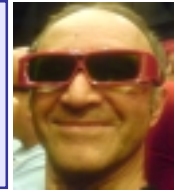

Die Söldnerschar um Barney Ross soll einen Altbekannten den Behörden ausliefern: Conrad Stonebanks, einst Barney rechte Hand, jetzt skrupelloser Waffenhändler. Weil er der Meinung ist, dass seine treuen Mitkämpfer inzwischen zu alt für den Job sind, rekrutiert er eine neue, junge Garde. Doch alte Haudegen lassen sich nicht so einfach entsorgen – zum Glück... Einmal mehr ist es dem Tausendsassa Sylvester Stallone gelungen, eine Altherrenriege zusammenzustellen, die wohl bei jedem 1980er-Jahre Action-Fan das Herz höher schlagen lässt. Fast so als wolle er seiner Fangemeinde mitteilen, dass er und seine Kumpels noch lange nicht zum alten Eisen gehören. Und da er selbst das Drehbuch zu diesem

Wolfram Hannemanns

Film-Blog

Actionfilm verfasst hat, sorgt er natürlich dafür, dass die "Next Generation" zwar technisch brillanter ist als die vernarbte alte Crew, sich dafür aber in eine ausweglose Situation manövriert, aus der sie genau diese vernarbte alte Crew retten wird! Gut gemacht, alter Knabe – da hast Du es den Jungspunden aber tüchtig gezeigt. Ernst nehmen sollte man diesen Spaß für die (fast) ganze Familie natürlich nicht. Der Body Count schnellst astronomisch in die Höhe, aber den Schaden zeigt die Kamera nicht. Was die Kamera jedoch zeigt, sind fulminant in Szene gesetzte Actionsequenzen, in denen es mächtig kracht und scheppert. Spätestens dann, wenn Harrison Ford (ja, er ist es wirklich!) selbst in den Helikopter steigt und auch mal kräftig Dampf ablässt, ist der Spaß komplett. Jetzt können die Jungs endlich wieder Jungs sein und sich nach Herzenslust prügeln. Dieses "Treffen der Generationen" macht Laune und gleichzeitig Vorfreude auf die bereits in den Startlöchern stehenden "Expendebelles". Das Sahnehäubchen des Films wird übrigens ganz am Schluss serviert. Nämlich dann, wenn die neue Generation den alten Haudegen mit Neil Youngs "Old Man" ein Ständchen gibt. Einen schöneren Schluss könnte man sich kaum vorstellen.

Der Wahnsinn steht ihm ins Gesicht geschrieben

Deutsches Kino beherrschte heute meinen Vormittag

HIRNGESPINSTER (1:1.85, 5.1)

Verleih: Movienet

Land/Jahr: Deutschland 2013

Regie: Christian Bach

Darsteller: Tobias Moretti, Stephanie Japp, Jonas Nay

Kinostart: 09.10.2014

Simons Leben läuft in geordneten Bahnen so gut es geht. Der 23jährige fährt einen Schulbus, hängt in der Disco ab und kümmert sich liebevoll um die wesentlich jüngere Schwester. Sein Vater, ein verschuldeter Architekt, der sein großes Comeback bei einer Ausschreibung machen möchte, ist das Problemkind in der Familie: er ist schizophr und will sich nicht behandeln lassen. Als Simon die junge Verena kennenlernt, gerät sein fragiles Familienidyll aus den Fugen... Ihm steht der Wahnsinn ins Gesicht geschrieben: Tobias Moretti liefert in der Rolle des psychisch kranken Vaters eine überzeugende Leistung ab. Seine Unberechenbarkeit trägt den ganzen Film. Leider jedoch überzeugt alles andere nicht genauso deutlich. Denn Christian Bachs Film ist weniger ein Film für die große Kinoleinwand als vielmehr fürs Fernsehformat, eine Eigenschaft, die der Film nicht abschütteln kann. Hinzu kommen einige inszenatorische Schwächen, die insbesondere die im Film auftretenden Polizisten als ziemliche Deppen erscheinen lässt. Etwas bemüht wirkt auch die Liebesgeschichte zwischen Simon und Verena. Fazit: der Gang ins Kino ist nicht lohnenswert.

In tiefen Wassern

Ein Thriller aus Norwegen zog mich heute in seinen Bann

PIONEER (1:2.35, 5.1 + 7.1)

OT: Pioneer

Verleih: farbfilm

Land/Jahr: Norwegen, Deutschland, Schweden 2013

Regie: Erik Skjoldbjærg

Darsteller: Wes Bentley, Stephen Lang,

Kinostart: 30.10.2014

Als Anfang der 1980er Jahre vor Norwegens Küste große Erdöl- und Gasvorkommen entdeckt werden, geht es nur darum, wem es gelingt, den Schatz zu heben. Eigens dafür ausgebildete Taucher wie Petter und sein Bruder Knut gehören zu den Pionieren, die in über 300 Metern Tiefe Arbeiten für eine Pipeline ausführen sollen. In Zusammenarbeit mit einem amerikanischen Team wird ein spezielles Gasmisch erprobt, das es den Tauchern ermöglichen soll, in derartigen Tiefen zu überleben. Bei einem Test auf offener See kommt es jedoch zu einem Unfall, den Knut mit dem Leben bezahlt und der Petter in die Schuhe geschoben wird. Petter aber glaubt nicht an diese Theorie und beginnt mit Nachforschungen, die ihn bald in eine äußerst brenzlige Lage bringt... Die Unterwasser-Bilder, die der schwedische Kameramann Jallo Faber liefert, sind recht beeindruckend und erinnern ein wenig an jene aus Luc Bessons Taucherfilm IM RAUSCH DER TIEFE. Faber visualisiert dadurch perfekt das Gefühl der Klaustrophobie, dem die Taucher bei ihrer Arbeit ausgesetzt sind. Gleichzeitig aber funktioniert diese Klaustrophobie auch als Metapher für die Verschwörung, der Petter auf die Spur kommt. Und offenbar hat es sie wirklich gegeben. Denn Regisseur Erik Skjoldbjærgs Film beruht auf wahren Begebenheiten, die sich in den 1980er-Jahren in Norwegen zugetragen haben, jener Zeit also, in der das Land angesichts der massiven Öl- und Gasvorkommen vor der norwegischen Küste in eine Art Goldrausch verfiel und die das Land schließlich zu einem der reichsten Länder der Welt gemacht hat. Skjoldbjærg, dem wir einen Thriller wie INSOMNIA zu verdanken haben (das norwegische Original wohl gemerkt, nicht das weichgespülte amerikanische Remake!), inszeniert seinen Film routiniert spannend und extrem flott. Mit Aksel Hennie in der Hauptrolle hat er den Film mit einem zumindest in Deutschland unverbrauchten Gesicht besetzt. Und Hennie füllt seine Rolle sehr gut aus – physisch wie psychisch. In guten Momen-ten wirkt die Filmmusik von Air sehr atmosphärisch unterstützend, doch genauso schlägt sie leider hin und wieder ins Gegenteil um. Nichtsdestotrotz eignet sich PIONEER als Spannungskino und sollte auf einer möglichst großen Leinwand konsumiert werden.

Auf der Couch

Eine Persönlichkeit amerikanischer Psychoanalyse war heute das Thema meiner Kinomatinee

YALOMS ANLEITUNG ZUM GLÜCKLICHSEIN (1:1.85, 5.1)

OT: Yalom's Cure

Verleih: Alamode (Filmagentinnen)

Land/Jahr: Schweiz 2014

Regie: Sabine Gisiger

Kinostart: 02.10.2014

Er zählt als einer der ganz Großen der amerikanischen Psychoanalyse: Dr. Irvin D. Yalom. Von ihm stammen so essentielle Erkenntnisse wie "Je besser wir uns selber kennen, desto besser wird unser Leben. Wenn wir Probleme bekommen, hat das oft mit Teilen unserer Selbst zu tun, die wir nicht kennen". Die Filmemacherin Sabine Gisiger ist dem Psychotherapeuten und Buchautor jetzt mit der Kamera auf den Leib gerückt und hat auch seine Ehefrau Marilyn mit einbezogen. Denn die beiden sind schon eine Ewigkeit miteinander verheiratet – und das glücklich! Ganz anders als ihre vier Kinder, die alle bereits Scheidungen hinter sich haben. Was ist das Geheimnis dieser glücklichen Ehe? Nur eine der Fragen, der die Filmemacherin auf den Grund geht. Entstanden ist dabei das Porträt zweier sehr sympathischen Menschen, die sich ihr ganzes Leben lang mit der Psychoanalyse auseinandergesetzt haben, um anderen Menschen zu helfen. Ein Ergebnis, das Irvin Yalom aus seiner langjährigen Arbeit als Therapeut dabei gewonnen hat, ist die Erkenntnis, dass wir alle Patienten sind und nicht nur jene, bei denen dies ganz offensichtlich ist. Für Kenner von Yaloms Büchern sowie für Menschen mit Interesse an moderner Psychoanalyse ist Sabine Gisigers schön fotografierter Film Pflicht.

LAND DER WUNDER (1:1.85, DD 5.1)

OT: Le Meraviglie

Verleih: Delphi (Central)

Land/Jahr: Italien, Deutschland 2014

Regie: Alice Rohrwacher

Darsteller: Monica Bellucci, Alba Rohrwacher, André Hennicke

Kinostart: 02.10.2014

Gelsomina und ihre Schwestern leben mit ihren Eltern auf einem kleinen Hof in der Toskana, der sich vor allem der Honiggewinnung verschrieben hat. Doch neue staatliche Auflagen bringen den Familienbetrieb in arge Bedrängnis und die Nachbarn verwenden Düngemittel, der Gift für die Bienen ist. Damit etwas mehr Geld in die Kasse kommt, nimmt der Vater einen Jungen aus einem Resozialisierungsprogramm auf. Gelsomina aber hat ganz andere Pläne: sie möchte den Familienbetrieb bei einer TV-Show anmelden, in der es viel Geld zu gewinnen gibt. Der Vater aber ist strikt dagegen... Über LAND DER WUNDER habe ich mich gewundert. Denn der Film hat doch tatsächlich den Grand Prix in Cannes gewonnen. Immerhin war es der beste Film, den ich heute gesehen habe. Und es war der bisher einzige Film an diesem Tag. An dieser Stelle muss ich einmal mehr meine These bemühen, dass wenn ich es nicht verstanden habe, es sich um Filmkunst handeln muss. Also jene Art von Film, in die man als Schüler vom Deutsch- oder Kunstlehrer geschleppt wurde, damit man mal ein bisschen hochwertige Kultur mit auf den Weg bekommt. Wie auch immer – ich konnte mit Alice Rohrwachers Film leider nichts anfangen (und habe damit vermutlich wieder ein Meisterwerk nicht erkannt). Die ganze Inszenierung wirkte wie eine Doku-Soap – mit Wackelkamera und was sonst noch dazu gehört. Dazu ein Dialogwirrwarr aus Italienisch und Deutsch, das nicht weiter erklärt wird. Wer auf Kunstkino steht – bitte schön!

Supergirl

Am Wochenende habe ich mir mal wieder einen ganz regulären Kinobesuch gegönnt. Regulär? Bei IMAX wohl kaum...

LUCY (1:2.35, DD 5.1 + Atmos, Barco 11.1)

OT: Lucy

Verleih: Universal

Land/Jahr: USA, Frankreich 2014

Regie: Luc Besson

Darsteller: Scarlett Johansson, Morgan Freeman, Amr Waked

Kinostart: 14.08.2014

Weil sie ihrer Disco-Bekanntheit einen Gefallen tun will, bekommt es Studentin Lucy in Taipeh mit der brutalen Chinesenmafia zu tun, die ihr einen Beutel mit einer neuen Droge in den Bauch einnähen, um sie als Kurier zu benutzen. Doch das Paket wird undicht und setzt die Droge in Lucys Körper frei und steigert Lucys Hirnaktivitäten ins Unermessliche. Ausgestattet mit vollkommen neuen physischen wie psychischen Möglichkeiten will Lucy die anderen Kuriere stoppen – und wird gleichzeitig von den Chinesen gejagt. Wer Luc Bessons Action-Film unbedingt an seiner Geschichte oder gar seinen Charakteren festmachen will, begeht einen großen Fehler. Denn beides – Story und Charaktere – sind bei Besson eigentlich nur Mittel zum Zweck. Und der Zweck? Furiose, optisch brillante Action! Bessons Botschaft am Ende des Films ist klar: "Das Leben wurde Euch gegeben – also macht etwas daraus". Und die geht auch vollkommen in Ordnung, würde er sie nicht ständig und holzhammerartig immer wieder heraufbeschwören, anstatt einfach dem Bilderfluss freien Lauf zu lassen. LUCY ist genau dann absolut grandios, wenn wir mit diesen schnell montierten Bildern regelrecht bombardiert werden und das Sounddesign ein Übriges dafür tut, dass es uns in den Kinossessel drückt. Wer das vollkommen anders empfindet, hat den Film garantiert nicht in seiner IMAX-Version goutiert. Ein derart optisch starker Film wie LUCY ist wie geschaffen für die riesige IMAX Leinwand. Und sie hilft wesentlich bei der Verdrängung der missglückten Story und seiner Protagonisten. Bessons Film steckt zudem voller Filmzitate. Nicht nur, dass er in seine beschleunigten Bilderfluten Sequenzen aus BARAKA und SAMSARA gepackt hat. Auch bei den wirklich eigenen Kreationen wird beispielsweise mehrfach auf 2001 verwiesen. Die visuellen Effekte sind überwältigend und sprudeln nur so mit wirklich netten Ideen. Wenn sich Scarlett Johansson alias Lucy am Ende des Films in einen Supercomputer verwandelt, von dem schließlich nur ein USB-Stick übrigbleibt, erwartet man eigentlich, dass das IMAX-Logo aufgedruckt ist. Das zumindest wäre ein brillanter Gag gewesen. Weit weniger brillant ist die Entscheidung der FSK, die den ziemlich blutigen und gewaltgetränkten Film bereits ab 12 Jahren freigegeben hat. Vielleicht sollten sich die Juroren das Werk zur Abwechslung mal in einem richtigen Kino anschauen.

Was für ein Theater!

Ist der heutige Film tatsächlich so gut wie der Ruf, der ihm vorausseilt?

EIN GESCHENK DER GÖTTER (1:2.35, 5.1)

Verleih: Arsenal

Land/Jahr: Deutschland 2014

Regie: Oliver Haffner

Darsteller: Katharina Marie Schubert,

Adam Bousdoukos, Canan Kir

Kinostart: 09.10.2014

Als Anna ihren Job als Schauspielerin am örtlichen Theater verliert, soll sie einer Gruppe Langzeitarbeitsloser helfen, Selbstvertrauen aufzubauen. Doch schon bald findet sich der bunt zusammengewürfelte Haufen inmitten der Proben für das Theaterstück "Antigone" wieder... Oliver Haffners Versuch eines deutschen GANZ ODER GAR NICHT (dort war es Männerstrip, hier ist es Theater) ist leider viel zu sehr bemüht. Das Komödiantische weicht schon früh einem Sozialdrama, Pointenfunktionieren nur bedingt. Das schwäbisch sprechende Ehepaar mutet wie ein Fremdkörper an in einem Film, in dem ausschließlich Hochdeutsch gesprochen wird. Immerhin gibt es eine gelungen Szene gleich zu Beginn des Films, in der Anna vom Intendanten (souverän: Bernd Grawert) auf eine derart perfide Art und Weise entlassen wird, dass man dem Kerl am liebsten an den Hals springen möchte – und die Gute merkt überhaupt nicht wie ihr geschieht.

Die Suche nach der richtigen Frau

Doku-Drama oder Dokumentarfilm, das ist hier die Frage

(K)EIN BESONDERES BEDÜRFNIS

(1:1.85, 5.1)

OT: The Special Need

Verleih: farbfilm

Land/Jahr: Deutschland, Italien 2013

Regie: Carlo Zoratti

Darsteller: Enea Gabino, Alex Nazzi,

Carlo Zoratti

Kinostart: 23.10.2014

Enea ist ein feiner Kerl. Der 29jährige Italiener ist bei seinen Kumpels beliebt, arbeitet in der Textilfabrik und mag alle Frauen. Die Richtige aber hat er noch nicht gefunden: er ist Autist! Seine besten Freunde Alex und Carlo finden, dass es an der Zeit ist, ein Mädchen für Enea zu finden, das all seine Bedürfnisse zufriedenstellen kann. Und schon geht das Trio auf eine Reise durch Europa. Carlo Zoratti, der Enea während seines Sozialdienstes kennengelernt hat und ihn mittlerweile seit 16 Jahren kennt, hat ein Kamerateam mit auf die Reise genommen und gibt mit diesem dokumentarischen Spielfilm sein Debüt. Er soll nach eigenem Bekunden zeigen, "wie spannend es sein kann, das Leben aus einer anderen Perspektive zu betrachten". Das gelingt dem Film nur bedingt. Vielmehr drängt sich dem Betrachter die Feststellung auf, dass auch behinderte Menschen dieselben zwischenmenschlichen Bedürfnisse haben wie die nicht Behinderten. Es ist natürlich bemerkenswert, wie sich die beiden Freunde für Enea einsetzen, doch bleibt der Wahrheitsgehalt etwas fragwürdig. Auf die Form seines Films angesprochen verweigert der Regisseur eine Klassifizierung. Doku-Drama oder Dokumentarfilm – für Carlo Zoratti zählt nur, dass er einen Film gemacht hat. Die Reise der Jungs mit ihrem VW-Bus zu einem Bordell in Österreich oder ein auf Behinderte spezialisiertes Etablissement wirkt länger als die 84 Minuten, die der Film dauert. Eine Reise, während der man sich auch die Frage stellt, ob Enea tatsächlich ein Autist ist oder nicht unter einer ganz anderen Behinderung leidet. Um eine Beantwortung dieser Frage bemüht sich der Film in keiner Weise.

Ein geheimnisvoller schwarzer Monolith, der offenbar von Außerirdischen stammt, beeinflusst in grauer Vorzeit die Entstehung von Intelligenz und den „Aufbruch der Menschheit“, wird Jahrtausende später von Wissenschaftlern auf dem Mond entdeckt und lockt ein Forschungsraumschiff in Richtung Jupiter. Die Mission endet nach dem Versagen des Bordcomputers mit einer Katastrophe; der einzig überlebende Astronaut begegnet der außerirdischen Macht und erfährt eine kosmische Wiedergeburt. Kubricks fantastisches Kinoabenteuer vereint technische Utopie und kulturphilosophische Spekulation zu einer Weltraumoper von überwältigendem Ausmaß. Der kühne gedankliche Entwurf des Films (eine Entwicklungsgeschichte der Menschheit voller Skepsis und bitterer Ironie) wird mit nicht minder kühnen optischen Effekten und einer revolutionären Tricktechnik realisiert, die das Genre des Science-Fiction-Films in den folgenden Jahren entscheidend prägen. Die Filmversion der erfolgreichen „Rockoper“: Eine Gruppe junger Leute spielt in den Ruinen antiker Bauten in der Negev-Wüste Stationen aus dem Leben Jesu und seiner Jünger. Der Akzent liegt auf dem machtpolitischen Spannungsverhältnis, in das Jesus durch den Massenerfolg seiner Predigten gerät. Judas wird als tragische Figur interpretiert: Seine Skepsis und Verzweiflung angesichts der zur Droge gewordenen christlichen Lehre - auf deren sozialrevolutionäre Kraft er hoffte - treibt ihn zu Verrat und Selbstmord. Die brillant fotografierte Inszenierung macht sich mitunter selbst zum Thema, indem sie Starkult und Showbusiness ironisiert, verdrängt diese kritischen Ansätze jedoch durch kunstgewerbliche Musical-Bombastik. Interessant als Dokument der Jugendkultur zu Beginn der 70er Jahre. (Quelle: Film-Dienst)

Unter Einsatz aller erdenklichen technischen Raffineszen auf Hochspannung getrimmter harter Action-Film, der in der zweiten Hälfte zunehmend an Ironie gewinnt. Seine Rasanzen und Dramatik erreicht er erst in der 70mm-Fassung und einem dementsprechend eingerichteten Kino. Um einen lateinamerikanischen Diktator und Drogenboß zu befreien, der an die US-Behörden ausgeliefert werden soll, legt eine bis an die Zähne bewaffnete und technisch raffiniert ausgestattete Terroristen-Einheit den Flughafen von Washington lahm und läßt ein Passagier-Flugzeug am Boden zerschellen. Ein Polizist aus Los Angeles bringt praktisch im Alleingang das Unternehmen zum Scheitern. Der spannende Kampf mit den Tücken moderner Technik, der den Reiz von „Stirb langsam“ (1987) ausmachte, weicht oberflächlich konstruiertem, lautstarkem Aktionsreichtum mit nur geringen Anzeichen von Ironie, aber um so mehr genreüblichen Härten. (Quelle: Film-Dienst)

Als besonderes Schmankerl präsentiert die Schauburg in Karlsruhe am Vorabend des Todd-AO-Festivals als europäische Erstaufführung ein nagelneues DCP des allerersten Todd-AO-Films „OKLAHOMA“. Das DCP verfügt über eine Bildauflösung von 4K mit einer Bildfrequenz von 30 Bildern pro Sekunde sowie unkomprimiertem Dolby Surround 7.1 PCM-Sound.

Alien Warning (Blu-ray + DVD Combo) (Blu-ray)

Cameron Mitchell, Martin Landau, Jack Palance - Dir. Greydon Clark
This goofy sci-fi/horror nonsense plays like '50s-style alien invasion schlock with a dollop of '80s-style blood and gore. The invasion - such as it is - is perpetrated on various backwoods hunters and campers by a scarcely-seen alien that looks like a menacing Star Trek guest star in a glam-rock outfit. The alien's rather simple frontal attack employs an arsenal of toothy, pulsating frisbees that glow in the dark and glom onto the necks and backs of various flannel-clad denizens of the woods. That's about it... oh, and there's a few reliable character actors on hand to spout silly dialogue. Jack Palance plays a crusty hunter who fancies the alien stuffed and mounted, not caring that it plans to do the same to him (now there's a trophy); Martin Landau turns in an eye-rolling performance as the local lunatic, whose paranoid ravings presage those of his character in the feature film The X-Files. Also known as It Came Without Warning.

All That Jazz: The Criterion Collection (Blu-ray + DVD Combo) (Blu-ray)

Roy Scheider, Leland Palmer, Ann Reinking, Ben Vereen, Jessica Lange - Dir. Bob Fosse
The preternaturally gifted director and choreographer Bob Fosse turned the camera on his own life for this madly imaginative, self-excoriating musical masterpiece. Roy Scheider gives the performance of his career as Joe Gideon, whose exhausting work schedule - mounting a Broadway production by day and editing his latest movie at night - and routine of amphetamines, booze, and sex are putting his health at serious risk. Fosse burrows into Gideon's (and his own) mind, rendering his interior world as phantasmagoric spectacle. Assembled with visionary editing that makes dance come alive on-screen as never before, and overflowing with sublime footwork by the likes of Ben Vereen, Leland Palmer, and the awesomely leggy Ann Reinking, All That Jazz pushes the musical genre to personal depths and virtuosic aesthetic heights.

Armored Attack / The North Star (Blu-ray)

Erich Von Stroheim, Anne Baxter, Dean Jagger, Dana Andrews, Walter Brennan, Farley Granger - Dir. Lewis Milestone
When the school year ends, five friends from a small Ukrainian village decide to travel to Kiev. Their trip is cut short when German aircraft attack and their town falls under occupation. While many escape to the hills to form an anti-Nazi resistance group, a German doctor, Dr. Otto Von Harden (Erich von Stroheim), begins to use the children for medical experiments and as sources of blood transfusions for wounded German soldiers. Directed by Lewis Milestone (All Quiet on the Western Front), this story of valiant resistance stars Dana Andrews (Laura), Anne Baxter (All About Eve), and Walter Huston (The Treasure of Sierra Madre) as the Russian doctor who discovers the nefarious German plot. In 1943, The North Star was nominated for six Academy Awards. The North Star (1943) was re-released in the midst of the Cold War as Armored Attack! (1957). The original references to the allied Russian military were excised and an overtly anti-Communist narration track was added. This disc includes the original theatrical cut, The North Star, which runs 30 minutes longer and preserves Milestone's initial version of the Set in England, rather than California, the story follows Raymond Chandler's book fairly closely otherwise. He soon finds that the attempt is half hearted at best and seems to be more connected with the disappearance of the other daughter's husband, Rusty Regan. Director Roger Corman pulls no punches in this sordid (and true) saga of Kate 'Ma' Barker and her sons, brutal criminals who terrorized America in the 1920s and '30s. Shelley Winters plays Ma with scenery-chewing vigor; the scene in which she holds up a bank with a tommy gun is a peak moment in exploitation cinema. Nominated for four Academy Awards including Best Actor and Actress (Jack Lemmon, Best Actor; Jane Fonda, Best Actress - 1979), The China Syndrome stars Jane Fonda, Jack Lemmon and Michael Douglas in the „superbly suspenseful, expertly crafted, entirely riveting“ (Richard Schickel, Time) white-knuckle thriller that famously predicted the Three Mile Island meltdown, a nuclear disaster that occurred just 12 days after the film's theatrical release. It started as just another assignment. Reporter Kimberly Wells (Jane Fonda) and cameraman Richard Adams (Michael Douglas) were covering the daily routine at a Los Angeles power plant when the unthinkable occurred - a nuclear accident that could have wiped out Southern California. And Richard caught it all on tape. When their TV station refuses to air the footage, Wells and Adams recruit plant supervisor Jack Godell (Jack Lemmon) to expose the terrifying truth: the facility is a ticking bomb. But with millions of dollars at stake, company officials cannot let the story break. When the trio attempts to broadcast live from the plant's control room, the utility comp

Carle, Guy Decombe - Dir. Jacques Tati

Though he made only a handful of films, director, writer, and actor Jacques Tati ranks among the most beloved of all cinematic geniuses. With a background in music hall and mime performance, Tati steadily built an ever more ambitious movie career that ultimately raised sight-gag comedy to the level of high art. In the surrogate character of the sweet and bumbling, eternally umbrella-toting and pipe-smoking Monsieur Hulot, Tati invented a charming symbol of humanity lost in a constantly modernizing modern age. This set gathers his six hilarious features - Jour de fete, Monsieur Hulots Holiday, Mon oncle, PlayTime, Traffic, and Parade - along with seven delightful Tati-related short films.

Cotton Comes To Harlem

Cleavon Little, Calvin Lockhart, Redd Foxx, Godfrey Cambridge, Judy Pace, Raymond St. Jacques - Dir. Ossie Davis

The highly influential blaxploitation film Cotton Comes To Harlem spawned the beginning of the blaxploitation action boom in 1970 by delivering a refreshingly different detective action story utilizing humor, impactful drama, and most refreshingly, a lot of soul. This picture became a milestone in blaxploitation filmmaking and influenced many of its successors during this important decade in film history. Two black cops in Harlem suspect a preacher's back-to-Africa campaign is a swindle, and this leads to a host of adventures trail-blazed by fast, tough repartee. Cotton featured the relatively unknown actor Redd Foxx, as well as solid performances by Godfrey Cambridge, Raymond St. Jacques, and Calvin Lockhart. Based on the book by Chester Himes, the signature combination of fast-paced adventure, sheer comedy, and spectacular shootouts and chase scenes make this classic blaxploitation.

Elmer Gantry

Patti Page, Edward Andrews, Dean Jagger, Burt Lancaster, Shirley Jones, John McIntire, Arthur Kennedy, Jean Simmons - Dir. Richard Brooks

Elmer Gantry is a charming, fast-talking con, working the road as a traveling salesman in the 1920s. Burt Lancaster stars as the elusive Gantry in this charismatic adaptation of Sinclair Lewis's 1927 novel. When Gantry runs across a group of traveling evangelists, he charms their saintly leader, Sister Susan Falconer (Jean Simmons), and becomes her partner, preaching fire and brimstone in the packed revival tents of the hardened Midwest. Gantry's robust style and Falconer's Joan of Arc-like spirit skyrocket the two minstrels to fame and fortune as they travel with their flock waging war on sinners and speak-easies—until they preach in a big city and catch the eye of a tough prostitute (Shirley Jones) who knows that Elmer is not quite as holy as he appears. This biting portrait of the business of religion was highly innovative at the time of its release, casting a slightly tarnished light on the hustle and theatrics of traveling ministries, while analyzing the true nature of faith and redemption. Lancaster's performance as the salesman turned preacher is dynamic and highly charismatic, full of energy and

F For Fake: The Criterion Collection (Blu-ray)

Pablo Picasso, Oja Kodar, Orson Welles - Dir. Orson Welles

Trickery. Deceit. Magic. In F for Fake, a free-form sort-of documentary by Orson Welles, the legendary filmmaker (and self-described charlatan) gleefully reengages with the central preoccupation of his career: the tenuous lines between illusion and truth, art and lies. Beginning with portraits of the world-renowned art forger Elmyr de Hory and his equally devious biographer, Clifford Irving, Welles embarks on a dizzying journey that simultaneously exposes and revels in fakery and fakers of all stripes - not the least of whom is Welles himself. Charming and inventive, F for Fake is an inspired prank and a clever examination of the essential duplicity of cinema.

The Great Train Robbery

Robert Lang, Alan Webb, Sean Connery, Donald Sutherland - Dir. Michael Crichton
Michael Crichton's most accomplished directorial effort, The Great Train Robbery is a stylish thriller based on his best-selling book about the first robbery to take place aboard a moving train. Set in 1855 England, Edward Pierce (Sean Connery) is a master thief with the ambitious goal of stealing a shipment of gold bars en route to the Crimea. Conspiring with his beautiful mistress, Miriam (Lesley-Anne Down), and England's greatest locksmith, Agar (Donald Sutherland), Pierce sets out on a quest to copy each of four keys needed to open the train's vault, keys that are kept and guarded by different parties. Giving a smooth performance reminiscent of his James Bond role, Connery infuses Pierce with a disarming confidence as he seduces his way through the upper-class environment of the key holders, who seem to have their own low-brow weaknesses. From the decadent parties and mansions of the wealthy to the brothels and dog fights of the underclass, The Great Train Robbery is a historical tour de force that culminates in the suspenseful, dangerous climax of this true story.

The Legend Of Lizzie Borden

Elizabeth Montgomery - Dir. Paul Wendkos

'Lizzie Borden took an axe/And gave her mother forty whacks/When she saw what she had done/She gave her father forty-one'. New England spinster Lizzie Borden was acquitted of the charge of murdering her father and stepmother in 1892, but this made-for-TV movie, like most recreations of the murders and subsequent trial, adheres to the popular consensus that Borden was guilty. Elizabeth Montgomery takes a break from playing victims to portray the enigmatic Borden. The trial scenes are lifted directly from the original court records; scripter William Bast's speculation as to what really happened the night the elder Bordens were hacked to death is pure (but credible) conjecture. Accompanied by a 'parental guidance suggested' tag, The Legend Of Lizzie Borden was first broadcast February 10, 1975.

Mr. and Mrs. North

Barbara Britton, Richard Denning, Francis De Sales

As a forerunner to McMillan & Wife and Hart to Hart, Mr. & Mrs. North features the sophisticated husband and wife team of Jerry and Pamela North from Greenwich Village, who work to investigate various crimes and solve them before the police do. Jerry (Richard Denning), a mystery magazine publisher, and Pamela (Barbara Britton), who maintains the more aggressive lead to Denning's reluctant follower, are also amateur sleuths. And like the aforementioned shows, while crime and murder are being solved, a touch of humor always permeates the proceedings. Mr. & Mrs. North was produced by John W. J. Farrell MacDonald, Jane Darwell, Cathy Downs, Grant Withers, Tim Holt, Victor Mature, Alan Mowbray, Walter Brennan, Ward Bond, John Ireland, Henry Fonda, Russell Simpson, Roy Roberts, Linda Darnell - Dir. John Ford

John Ford takes on the legend of the O.K. Corral shoot-out in this multilayered, exceptionally well-constructed western, one of the director's very best films. Run Silent, Run Deep

Don Rickles, Burt Lancaster, Clark Gable - Dir. Robert Wise
'Run silent, run deep' is a term that accurately describes the mission of the submarine in this tense World War II drama. Commander Richardson (Clark Gable) is the only survivor when his sub is hit by a notorious Japanese destroyer dubbed Bongo Pete in the Bongo Straits of Japan. Back at Pearl Harbor, Richardson obsessively plays out strategies that would have saved his crew. When he is reassigned a new ship in the Pacific, he must face old demons as well as the sub's younger executive officer who was slated for captain, Lt. Bledsoe (Burt Lancaster). Bledsoe has the support of his crew and locks horns easily with Richardson, but when the captain disobeys navy orders to stay clear of the Bongo Straits, taking the crew right in to go after Bongo Pete, there is very nearly a mutiny. Run Silent, Run Deep is marked by strong performances, particularly by Gable, and a taut script. The scenes of the rigorous sub drills the captain puts his crew through are intensive and exceptional.

As the alcohol begins to wear off and the body count rises, all hell breaks loose and there is no going back. As if the foul mouths, perverted attitudes and devious natures of Tabitha and Mimi were not enough, then just throw in Tabitha's walking porno of a boyfriend Sean and his new best friend, the sweet Dutch. Then mix in Mimi's eighteen year old virginal, confused and prudish sister Kylene and her sexually challenged boyfriend Harris, and the events gets even saucier. Then shoot in a splash of the old pervert Marc and his crazy unhinged wife Lola, and then toss in the Bible-thumping Jesus-freak Thelma, and it gets a little more crazy, dangerous, insane and ...

Wallander: Season 3

Krister Henriksson returns in a stunning performance as Detective Kurt Wallander from the best-selling crime series by Swedish author Henning Mankell. Wallander is Ystad's veteran detective who's finally learned to find respite from the job in the moments of grace that come from living on the beach with the dog, Jussi, or spending time with his granddaughter. He's still on the outs at work, however: offbeat methods make him an irritant for management and his colleague, Martinsson, is angling for his position. But no one in the department has the uncanny sense of the criminal mind that he does. Whether it's Cold War spies, pedophiles, human traffickers or kidnapers, Wallander knows when he's being lied to and when the story hasn't been fully told. Hurt is also trying to get a few things right with his daughter and fellow cop, Linda. He may have been an absentee father, but he's a very present grandfather and a friend to her and her husband. He's arrived at his life's twilight clinging to the one thing he knows, which is how to do police work. In that, Wallander is a man at the top of his game. He's also

The Young Savages

Jody Fair, John Davis Chandler, Milton Selzer, Pilar Seurat, Edward Andrews, Robert Burton, Dina Merrill, Burt Lancaster, Shelley Winters, Telly Savalas, Larry Gates - Dir. John Frankenheimer

The beginning of the long association between director John Frankenheimer and actor Burt Lancaster, The Young Savages stars the latter as Assistant D.A. Hank Bell. In the Spanish Harlem of the late 1950s, Hank is prosecuting three members of an Italian street gang who have been charged with the stabbing death of a blind Puerto Rican teenager. Although D.A. Dan Cole (Edward Andrews), eager to boost his career, has told the press that he'll seek the death penalty, Hank, a product of the same kind of slum neighborhood as both the killers and their victim, resolves to remain neutral until he's completed his investigation. His involvement is complicated both by his liberal wife Karin's (Dina Merrill) stand against capital punishment, and the fact that one of the indicted, Danny Di Pace (Stanley Kristien) is the son of his former fiancée Mary (Shelley Winters). As he patiently probes the case, Hank learns that the victim was actually the leader of a Puerto Rican street gang who was pimping his 13-year-old sister on the side. As tensions escalate on both sides, Karin is attacked by a street gang, and Hank is vi

Teenage

Filmmaker Matt Wolf teams with producer Jason Schwartzman to adapt Jon Savage's 2007 bestseller, which explores how concept of 'teenagers' didn't come into being until the early 20th century, forever altering our concept of aging and development by linking the gap between childhood and adulthood. From the early emergence of youth culture in the form of frivolous flappers and Swing Kids to the more ominous Hitler Youth during World War II, Wolf's film examines how adolescents became a crucial factor in shaping popular culture during a century when society seemed to be evolving faster than it had at any previous point in human history.

Women Of The Bible

The Women Of The Bible represent a diverse and intriguing group - powerful, independent, romantic, and brave. Their narratives come to life in this DVD collection revealing their often surprising stories. Mary of Nazareth endured nearly lifelong ridicule and scorn while standing by her son. Queen Esther courageously saved the Jews from certain death, while the beautiful Sheba dazzled Solomon, legendary King of Israel, and inspired some of the Bible's most erotic love poetry. The popular story of Delilah reveals how her name became synonymous with treachery and deceit.
